Dr. Shea Figures in Mystery of Lost Baby

KAISER WARNS GERMANS IN U. S.

CORCORAN MAY ACT IN CASE

Mother Says in Court Child Was Last in Care of Dr. Shea, Who Was Pardoned by the Council

After John J. Coleman of Charlestown had been found not guilty, by instructions of Judge Hardy, on a charge brought by Margaret McDonough of Charlestown, because the baby which she charged figured in the case has disappeared, it was said that possibly the facts in the case might be laid before District Attorney Corcoran of Middlesex County.

Dr. Alfred D. Shea testified that Miss McDonough's child was born in his home, and that he gave it to a family named Dolton in Clinton, and that he does not know whether it is dead or alive.

He said its birth was registered in the City Hall at Cambridge.

Miss McDonough said she has not seen the child since last Fall. She said it was born last August.

Dr. Shea is the Cambridge physician who after being sentenced to a prison term for illegal medical treatment of a young Polish girl was pardoned after a secret hearing by the Governor's Council during the administration of Governor Foss.

When the facts of that pardon became public a storm of protest arose at the secrecy of the hearing, and the failure to call for a statement from the district attorney, the presiding judge at Dr. Shea's trial, or any witness who testified at that trial.

Miss McDonough was the first witness today. She said:

"My baby was born in August of last year at the home of Dr. Alfred D. Shea.

"Eight or nine days after that it was put out to board, and was later returned to Dr. Shea's home. He then gave it to a woman in Clinton.

MOTHER'S STORY.

"I told Dr. Shea Coleman was the father. I paid Dr. Shea $25 and $50 for the care of the baby by those to whom he gave it."

She was cross-examined by James H. Vahey, Coleman's attorney.

Q—Are you sure you had a child?
A—As sure as God is above me.
Q—Did the District Attorney ask

COMMITTEE FAVORS BATTLE CRUISERS

Washington, May 18.—The House Naval Affairs Committee this afternoon abandoned the five-year naval building program calling for two dreadnoughts and two battle cruisers annually, and tentatively agreed to recommend beginning construction within a year of five battle cruisers and twenty submarines, but no dread-

Fear Lives Lost in Earthquake Zones in Italy

Rome, May 18.—Widespread damage is indicated and loss of life is feared in earthquakes covering a large area in Italy. New shocks today followed those of yesterday.

An earthquake of particular violence has occurred along the Adriatic coast from Rimini to Cesena. At the latter town a dozen persons were injured by the fall of cornices.

Rev. Father Alfani, director of the Observatory at Florence, predicts a repetition of the earthquake, which extends to the Venetian provinces.

Undulations were felt today in the region from Aquilla to Ferrara. Earthquake damage is reported from Rimini, Forli and Pesuria, as well as from Pesaro. Buildings were wrecked and church bells were hurled from the belfries into the streets. The shock moved in a southwesterly direction.

CHINAMAN KILLED BY SHIP'S PROPELLER

Hai Hong Lee, a Chinese mess steward on the British steamer Oceana, in today from Calcutta, Colombo and South African ports, leaped overboard as the ship was entering quarantine and was cut to pieces by the propeller. It is believed he intended suicide, though there is a possibility that he hoped to escape to land and avoid the immigration authorities.

Ah Yak and Luk Yun, two Chinese firemen, were scalded to death during the voyage when a steam pipe exploded.

MARSTON, FIRE CHIEF OF BROCKTON, DEAD

Brockton, May 18.—Harry L. Marston, for the past twenty-four years chief of the fire department here, died today after a short illness. For the past two weeks the well-known fire fighter has been confined to his bed suffering from heart trouble which was brought on by a fall which the chief sustained at a fire about two years ago. He is survived by two daughters.

SNOW SQUALL EARLY TODAY IN LEXINGTON

Early risers in Lexington today witnessed an unusual sight for this time of the year. A snow squall came as a climax to the hazy wind and rainstorm of yesterday, when the streets in many sections of the town were flooded with water to a depth of several inches.

NEW CLEW IN ORPET CASE

Boy's Lawyers Hopeful That Schoolmate of the Lambert Girl Will Prove Theory of Suicide

By International News Service.

Waukegan, Ill., May 18.—While the dreary examination of prospective jurymen continued the case of Will Orpet, charged with poisoning Marian Lambert, there came a development that is expected to prove one of the most potent arguments in favor of the young student's acquittal.

The defence, it became known, will produce Raymond Russell, a schoolmate of Marian's, who will testify that the day before the body was found in the woods, she was intently studying a chapter in her chemistry text book on the action of cyanides. And the book, with the notes written in the margins, will be produced.

It was cyanide of potassium that was found on her cheeks as she lay under the trees. Crystals of it were also found under finger nails, and her stomach contained a considerable quantity of the deadly poison.

The defence is confident that young Russell's testimony will go far, if not proving conclusively, to show that Marian Lambert herself took the poison to escape the disgrace which she thought was impending.

Marian Lambert's chemistry class in Deerfield High School was studying the chapter of cyanides the week that she died.

"I remember the day well," said young Russell today, as he showed the book to reporters. "This lesson was assigned on Tuesday—the last day Marian came to school. The whole chapter we were studying was about carbons. I remember it especially because Professor Craeco said letters at the central office by 1 p. m.

JURY GETS LOVE SUIT TODAY

Lawyer for Miss Johnson Cites Richeson Case in Argument Against Roslindale Rector

The $20,000 breach of promise suit against the Rev. Charles Chase Wilson of the Church of Our Saviour, Roslindale, brought by Miss Laura L. Johnson of Minneapolis, was given to the jury at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

In his charge Judge Morton informed the jurymen that the burden of proof was on the plaintiff, and that her case depended almost entirely on her own testimony. He also referred to the so-called Lakeville letter as a "suspicious prepared document."

Judge Morton said in part:

"This action was brought by the plaintiff to recover damages from the defendant because of his refusal to keep an alleged promise said to have been agreed upon between them.

"You will disregard all outside matters in connection with the case, and you must consider the facts as they stand out in the evidence. You must weigh those facts carefully.

MUST WEIGH EVIDENCE.

"She says the defendant agreed to marry her. Later she said he explicitly agreed to marry her. It is for you to determine whether or not the evidence shows such a promise to have been made.

"Referring to demonstrations of affection, what bearing do they have on an engagement? Evidence was introduced by the plaintiff concerning the so-called ratification of the agreement. Was that ratification the result of a promise that had been made previously?

"Then you must consider the conduct of the plaintiff regarding other men. There is a conflict of testimony regarding this, and you must weigh it all carefully. It is easy at this time to overemphasize that kind of evidence out of its true proportion to the case. The defendant is defending an action in which the plaintiff alleges he promised to marry her. As jurors in this case you must use your common sense in judging the facts.

"There are certain formalities connected with an engagement between two young persons which you must also consider. Then there is the visit of the plaintiff's father and mother to Boston, when the father failed to confer with the Rev. Mr. Wilson. You must consider that. There was no testimony introduced as to why the engagement should have been kept secret. She said she was engaged on July 3, but on July 4, which was a holiday, he was not with her. The plaintiff's case rests largely on her own testimony.

CASTS DOUBT ON LETTER.

"Referring to the letters introduced as evidence, the letter from Lakeville, in which she speaks of "pouring my heart out" appears to be a prepared document of extremely suspicious character. It is said to have been written by her, but it was

Latest War Bulletins

London, May 18.—The Vatican has made representations to Germany in an effort to have Germany abandon her submarine warfare, it was announced in Commons today by Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Secretary.

Amsterdam, May 18.—Destruction of the Dutch steamer Batavier V., which was sunk Tuesday with the loss of an American passenger, resulted in a monetary loss of more than $1,000,000. The ship carried $350,000 in gold in fourteen cases, containing $25,000 each; 7,500 bales of rice, and a large supply of coffee and piece goods.

London, May 18.—The French steamship Mira, 3,050 tons, has been sunk by a mine or submarine. The Mira hailed from Marseilles.

250 FLEE FIRE IN FACTORY AT LYNN

A spark from an emery wheel set fire to dust in a chute under the floor of the buffing room in the Thomas A. Kelly Company leather plant on Summer street, Lynn, today, and the smoke and flames poured up into the room where forty women and two hundred and ten men were at work. The smoke and fire threw the employes into a panic, and for a few moments there was a scramble for the three stairways.

Men knocked other men down and trampled upon them, and women screamed and fought in the semi-darkness of the smoke-filled room.

When the firemen arrived they put up ladders to the room and took down the men who had become confused and were unable to find the stairways.

Water and fire did a damage to the building set at $1,000 to $5,000 by Chief Chase of the Fire Department.

CARRIERS ON ROUTE TO TAKE UP MAIL

Letter carriers in the Central Post-office were today notified by Postmaster Murray to pick up mail in the letter boxes while they are delivering on their routes. Postmaster Murray has been trying out the new method for two weeks. The first day showed a gain of more than 8000 letters at the central office by 1 p. m.

REVERE BATH HOUSE OPENS ON JUNE 16

1,000 TREES SET OUT IN SHARON

Sharon, May 18.—One thousand trees were set out here today, 600 being white pine and 500 red pine, under direction of John G. Palfrey, chairman of the forest committee. William K. Clarke, president of the Sharon Improvement Association and Jacob Quimby, town tree warden,

5 ARE SHOT IN STRIKE RIOT AT ANSONIA

Ansonia, Ct., May 18.—Five men were shot, one seriously, this afternoon, as a result of a riot at the plant of the Ansonia Manufacturing Company, where a strike of about 300 employes, mostly foreigners, has been in force for the past two weeks.

Over 100 strikers met in Socialist Hall this afternoon and marched to the factory, where a number of them took stations in the shelter of piles of wood and iron about the factory and opened fire with rifles at employes on the first floor of the factory, numbering about 200, who remained at work.

The remainder of the strikers rushed at the force of police and special officers and a number of imported guards from New York who were guarding the factory. The guards were obliged to take refuge in the factory. There they opened fire on the mob outside, with the result that five of the strikers were shot.

One of the strikers, Charles Tolen, of No. 19 Star street, was taken to the Griffin Hospital with a bullet wound in his neck. He will probably die.

Word was sent to the police of New Haven and Waterbury for assistance and efforts were made to get into communication with Governor Holcomb and County Sheriff Hugo in an attempt to secure the aid of sheriffs or troops.

TO FREE NEW YORK SINN FEIN CADET

New York, May 18—Luke Kilgallon of Far Rockaway, L. I. was notified today by the State Department that his son, John A. Kilgallon, twenty-three, under arrest in Dublin on a charge of participating in the Sinn Fein revolt, would soon be released.

Young Kilgallon was a student in th school conducted by Patrick H. Pearse, "president of the Irish republic," since executed. According to information received by his father the boy and a number of fellow students were enlisted in a cadet company by the Sinn Fein leaders without being told the purpose for which they were being trained.

JANE ADDAMS URGES PEACE UPON WILSON

Washington, May 18.—American leaders of the International Committee of Women for Permanent Peace, headed by Jan Addams of Hull House, Chicago, today formally requested President Wilson to seek a conference of neutral nations to bring about peace in Europe.

MUST OBEY LAWS OF AMERICA

German Subjects in This Country Cautioned by Home Government in Regard to Their Conduct

By International News Service.

Washington, May 18.—The German government, through Count von Bernstorff, Ambassador here, today informed all German consuls in America that they must immediately warn all Germans and persons in any way connected with the German empire to observe strictly the laws of the United States.

The following announcement was given out at the German Embassy:

"In consequence of cases which have occurred of late, the German Ambassador sent instructions to all the German consuls in the United States to strongly impress on German citizens living in their districts that it is their duty to scrupulously obey the laws of the State in which they reside."

CHELSEA POLICE MASCOT KILLED

GUILTY IN DUBLIN RIOT

New Yorker May Hear Sentence Today; American Money Used to Aid Sinn Fein Uprising

By International News Service.

London, May 18.—Another United States citizen has been arrested in Ireland in connection with the Sinn Fein uprising, and has already been tried by court martial. He is Jeremiah C. Lynch of New York city.

It was stated that Lynch had been found guilty of taking part in the Irish revolt in Dublin and would be sentenced today.

Lynch was in difficulties with the British authorities last January. On January 3 he was arrested charged with entering the prohibited zone of Irish territory.

TRACE U. S. MONEY.

That considerable money was received from the United States by the Sinn Feiners and used for the purchase of arms and the printing of seditious newspapers and leaflets in Ireland, was the assertion made today by Sir Mathew Nathan, Under Secretary for Ireland, before the commission appointed to inquire into the origin and responsibility for the uprising in Dublin.

This was the first official statement showing a direct ramification of the revolt in the United States.

The first session of the commission was held in Westminster Hall with Lord Hardinge, the new Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, presiding.

Sir Mathew was the first witness, and one of the first questions asked him was whether or not financial aid

VERDICT FOR WIDOW OF HENRY WENZ

A verdict was today awarded Mrs. Mary L. Wenz, widow of Henry Wenz, chocolate manufacturer, in the $60,000 suit brought against her by her brother-in-law, Frank Wenz, in the Superior Court. The jury found that Mrs. Wenz did not commit an assault on Frank and did not implant him in the factory. They also found that there was no contract between Henry and Frank, nor any partnership agreement made.

BEST TIME TO BUY MOTORCARS

At this time of the year there are always a large number of high-class second-hand motorcars put on the market.

These cars are disposed of mostly by people of means who are leaving the city for the Summer. They would rather have the money a car will bring than have to pay garage charges on it and not get the use of it.

IMPORTANT GAINS FOR FRENCH AT VERDUN

By CHARLES F. BERTELLI,
Staff Correspondent of the International News Service.

Paris, May 18.—Important gains were made by the French on the west side of the Meuse last night, General Nivelle's forces carrying a German trench north of Hill No. 287 and also capturing a redoubt on Hill No. 304.

These successes were announced in the official communique of the War Office, which also stated that German attacks in Avocourt wood were repulsed.

The French assault which took from the Germans the trench north of Hill No. 287 was a surprise attack.

Particular mention is made of the fierceness of the fighting at Hill No. 304, where the Germans fought stubbornly before their lines swept from their redoubt by the French infantry.

Aerial activity on a grand scale continues over the West front.

The War office announced that German aeroplanes have bombarded Luneville, Epinal and Belfort, but that little damage was done. Belfort is one of the strongest fortifications in Eastern France.

TROOPS TAKE GERMAN FORT.

The text of the official communique follows:

"Between the Oise and the Aisne a strong reconnoitring party of the enemy which attempted to approach our lines in the outskirts of Quennevieres was counter-attacked by us and was dispersed, leaving some dead on the ground.

"On the west bank of the Meuse, after a sharp artillery preparation the Germans made several attacks during the night in efforts to capture the redoubt at Avocourt wood. They were repulsed every time by our fire. The enemy suffered very serious losses.

"For our part, we executed north of Hill No. 287, about 5 o'clock this morning, a surprise attack upon a German trench, the occupants of which were either killed or captured. At the same time our troops captured after a fierce fight a small fort which the enemy had strongly fortified on the slope northeast of Hill No. 304.

"On the right bank of the Meuse and in the Woevre both sides conducted bombardments.

SHELLING BY AVIATORS.

"On the night of May 16 our aviators carried out a number of bombardments on the front north of Verdun. In particular fifteen shells of large calibre were thrown upon an important munition depot between Rauconrt and Arrocourt, ten kilometers (6.2 miles) south of Sedan. Five were thrown on the railroad station at Sedan, where a fire broke out; fifteen on a munition depot near Azannes.

"On the same night two of our machines threw eighty shells on the railway station at Metz-Sablons. Enemy aeroplanes during the night dropped many bombs in the region of Luneville, Epinal and Belfort, causing no damage of importance."

TAKES PASSENGER 20,460 FEET IN AIR

Milan, Italy, May 18.—A new world's record for altitude with an aeroplane carrying a passenger, has just been made at the Mirafiori aerodrome by Victor Lufet, who ascended 20,460

WAR SUMMARY

There are two tests which may be applied to war bulletins to determine their actual importance. One is the "map test." The other is the "prisoner test." If a bulletin says: "We repulsed attacks by the Blanks at Avocourt," and a reference to the map shows that to reach Avocourt at all, the Blanks must have driven their enemies back five or six miles, you know the bulletin writer is covering up a defeat.

Likewise if a bulletin reports a victory and makes no mention of prisoners captured, it is fair to doubt the scope of the victory. And when prisoners captured run into the thousands, you know there has been a real success.

The Austrian advance south of Rovereto is important by either test. The number of prisoners captured—more than 6,000—is a sufficient proof that the Italians have been driven back in some confusion. The Austrian attack is at the best point, strategically, on the whole line, for an advance of a few miles here would bring the Austrians into the Italian plain, would cut off northeastern Italy, would result in a swift withdrawal of Italian troops—would have effects hard to calculate. The movement is worth watching.

The bombardment about Verdun continued brisk, and the French report gains in attacks at Hill 287 and Hill 304.

North of Salonica, there was minor activity; and official bulletins from both sides gave this rather more space than it seemed to warrant. Perhaps there will be some hard fighting there shortly.

The British acknowledged the loss of a monitor sunk by the Turks. They had previously called the Turkish announcement of this incident "false."

VIENNA MAKES FRESH GAINS IN TYROL

By International News Service.

Vienna, May 18.—Alternating bombardments of the most violent character and sharp infantry dashes have pushed the Italian invaders back to the border of Italy at some points in southern Tyrol, and it was confidently predicted here today that fighting will soon be in progress upon Italian soil.

As a result of the Austro-Hungarian offensive all along the front, the menace to Rovereto has been removed. The Italians moving upon Rovereto have been compelled to fall back in three directions—from the sector of Lagarina, in the Adige Valley and in the Astico Valley.

ATTACK BEFORE GORIZIA.

A severe cannonade of the Italian posts is being carried out along the Isonzo front, which is accepted here as the prelude to infantry onsets against the Italian troops lying in front of Gorizia.

There is great rejoicing in the Austrian capital over the official announcement of Austro-Hungarian victories over a twenty-five-mile front in the Tyrolese Alps, where the Italians fell back, leaving more than 6,000 prisoners in the hands of the victors as well as many machine guns and pieces of artillery.

From the extent of preparations made it is thought that the Austrian drive is just beginning and that steadily growing pressure will be exerted all along the front from the Adige River to Monfalcone.

The War Office announced today that the Italians delivered strong attacks on Doberto plateau and in the sector of Dolomites, but were repulsed.

DAMAGE UDINE BASE.

Austro-Hungarian land and sea aeroplanes have carried out a destructive bombardment of railway stations and military establishments behind the Italian front and heavy damage was done, particularly to the Italian base at Udine.

Following is the text of the official report:

"Artillery combats are in progress on the whole front. On the Doberdo plateau, our new positions have been extended by mining operations. The enemy directed drum fire upon our positions and then attacked, but was repulsed by the Forty-Third Regiment of infantry, after fighting with grenades.

"The artillery fire has temporarily been very violent at the Gorizia bridgehead, in the Krein sector, near Plezzo (Flitsch), and at several places on the Carinthian front. In the sector of Dolomites the enemy delivered night attacks against Hexagarels and the ridge north of Feinbure, was repulsed.

"In the sector of Toppio Lake the enemy kept up his fire against our positions all night.

"Strong squadrons of land and sea aeroplanes on the night of Monday-Tuesday, and on Tuesday copiously bombarded railroad stations and other establishments at Venice, Cormons, Cividale, Udine, Perlacardin and Erwino. Good results were observed at all these places, especially at Udine, where thirty eight anti-aircraft guns maintained a useless fire."

U. S. WOULD ACT WITH POPE

By International News Service.

Washington, May 18.—President Wilson's reply to the peace communication from Pope Benedict was transmitted to Rome by Monsignor Bonzano, the papal delegate.

The President informed the Pontiff that the friendly relations existing between the United States and the belligerent governments would put this country in a useful position when definite peace negotiations were begun.

President Wilson pointed out also that prospects for continued peace between this country and European powers were bright, and made references to the amicable settlement of the submarine controversy with Germany and its ultimate effect on European peace.

U. S. READY TO ACT.

Well-informed officials said the President, in his reply to the Pope, took the broad ground that the United States stood ready to use its friendly offices in an effort to reestablish peace. The reply is understood to invite further correspondence from the Vatican on the subject.

The State Department professes to know nothing concerning the peace correspondence with Pope Benedict, saying there are no diplomatic relations between it and the Vatican. Officials admitted, however, that they were "sensitive of feelers" for the restoration of peace. One official said:

It can be stated with reasonable certainty that Secretary Joseph C. Grew of the American Embassy in Berlin will bring here some definite information. This will, of course, include not only his personal observations, and he is a close observer, but probably some oral messages from Ambassador Gerard.

EXPECT FIRST-HAND FACTS.

In view of the fact there is no regard for the sanctity of first-class mails coming out of Germany, I think the best and most authentic information we will get on the subject of peace will be from Mr. Grew.

The impression was gained at the State Department that the United States would await definite proposals from Germany before beginning formal negotiations with the entente powers looking toward peace. Mr. Grew is expected to arrive in Washington early next week. He left Berlin on May 10 for Copenhagen, whence he sailed immediately for the United States.

Pope Is Greatest Force For Peace, Says Farley

By International News Service.

New York, May 18.—Cardinal Farley, addressing the annual luncheon at the Hotel McAlpine, of the Alumni Association of the American College in Rome, said:

The greatest force for peace in the world today is His Holiness, Pope Benedict. Years ago the Pope was excluded from all peace conventions. Today all rulers go to His Holiness for help and advice.

International Socialism has failed in its main objective. The statement of a French Catholic publicist that all international agencies have crumbled except the Papacy, is true.

At the suggestion of His Holiness, 150,000 prisoners have been exchanged and allowed to return to their homes.

Among the dignitaries present was announced The elevation of Cardinal Farley's secretary, the Rev. Thomas H. Carroll, D. D., to the rank of monsignor. The elevation of Archbishop Keiley, of Boston, and the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Patrick J. Supple, of Boston.

Pontiff Would End Cruel Methods and Save Small Nations

By CAMILLO CIANFARRA.
Special Correspondent to the International News Service.

Rome, May 18.—Cardinal Pietro Gasparri, the Papal Secretary of State, authorizes me to cable the following statement from the Vatican to the American:

EVER since his ascension to the throne, the Pope has steadily devoted his efforts to a prompt cessation of hostilities. Since then the Pontiff has never missed an occasion of intervening in favor of an early peace. Every movement tending to engender peace has his most cordial support and sympathy.

During these two years, besides working for peace, the Pope, as head of the Church, has also worked to prevent further complications.

IN his efforts in favor of peace the Pontiff was actuated by the noblest motives and the supreme interests of humanity.

The Papal Official Documents prove that the Pope has steadily maintained the strictest neutrality and impartiality.

His Holiness has OPENLY CONDEMNED THE CRUEL PRACTICE OF WAR, the slaughter of innocents, the use of gases, the destruction of cities, the violation of neutralities of small countries, and has raised his voice IN FAVOR OF BELGIUM AND OF ARMENIA.

IN his letter to rulers the Pontiff deprecated the desire of the belligerent nations to exterminate each other and counselled a friendly exchange of views as the only means to achieve peace.

In his allocation delivered at the last Consistory, the Pontiff ADVOCATED A JUST AND LASTING PEACE, NOT FAVORABLE TO A SINGLE BELLIGERENT, BUT TO ALL.

Nothing justifies a different interpretation of the Pope's peace efforts.

CHARGE ALLIED SUBMARINES GUILTY, TOO

Washington, May 18.—The French and Italian governments face a serious reckoning with the State Department, if the allegations of the Austro-Hungarian government are proved, that French and Italian submarines have attacked an Austrian passenger boat and a hospital ship.

The State Department today was awaiting with interest receipt of a note reported to have been handed to Ambassador Penfield as well as the diplomatic representatives of the neutral powers in Vienna.

The Austrian government charges French and Italian submarine craft with "intentional murder" and sets forth in detail the circumstances under which the Austrian passenger ship Dubrovnik was sunk in the Adriatic and the hospital ship Electra was torpedoed. It also is charged that other peaceable Austrian ships have been torpedoed without warning.

PLAN FOR 75,000 IN BIG BOSTON PARADE FOR PREPAREDNESS

The first announcement that 50,000 persons would march in the preparedness parade of May 27 was raised today by enthusiastic promoters to 75,000.

Lieutenant-Colonel Beaumont B. Buck, U. S. A., chief marshal of the parade, is responsible for the estimate of 60,000. He believes that the parade will be many times greater than Boston has ever seen.

PARADE INSTRUCTIONS.

Announcements today at Parade Headquarters, No. 42 Broad street, showed:

1—That the Stars and Stripes will be the only colors permitted in line.

2—That every marcher will be requested to carry a small American flag.

3—That the flags of all other nations will be barred, as will all placards of a political, partisan or sectarian character.

4—That each division will have a banner at its head and another at its end describing the organization.

5—That all men in the regular active service of the army, navy and marine corps were purposely not invited so that nobody could say the administration is behind the Boston demonstration or that it carries any political meaning.

6—That thousands of sailors and marines from the ships at the Charlestown yard would gladly take part, but for the desire of the parade committee to keep it entirely citizens' affair.

7—That only the chief marshal and staff and militia units are to be mounted.

8—That each division is to have a marshal and aid who will be responsible for the mobilization, organization and dispatch of each division.

9—That the members of the chief marshal's staff will wear red sashes over the right shoulder; gold, white sashes; division marshals, blue, and division aids narrower blue sashes.

10—That societies and organizations can wear regalia or uniforms if they see fit, but must not carry banners or flags of any other nationality.

11—That the only vehicles allowed in the column will be floats passed upon by the committee and forming part of the women's division.

12—That the parade will start from the junction of Arlington and Beacon streets at 1 p. m., unless exigencies necessitate an earlier start.

13—That marchers will parade twelve abreast.

14—That a salute of ten guns will be fired by a battery on Boston Common at the start and another salute at the close of the parade.

15—That every band within forty miles of Boston has been engaged and that firms and organizations having bands which do not belong to the Musicians' Union are entitled to bring them along.

16—That music will be furnished by organizations and divisions that have no bands or drum corps of their own.

17—That Benjamin F. Teele, general music director, will introduce the departure of holding a dozen bands in reserve in Charles street and when a section of the parade arrives, which seems not sufficiently provided with music, he will send in a relief band that the rest of the parade will necessitate sending many of the bands over the route twice.

18—That it will take about twenty minutes to cover the route, allowing for delays.

After threshing out differences over the date, the Retail Trade Board of the Boston Chamber of Commerce has agreed to May 27 if the managing committee of the parade would consent to revise the route. This compromise was promptly agreed upon.

As a result, congestion of the shopping district has been avoided and the tens of thousands of sightseers, who will flock to Boston from all parts of New England, will have more than half a day in which to attend to shopping. Even while the parade is in progress retailers in the shopping zone will not be interfered with in any way.

The Retail Board of the Chamber of Commerce has issued this statement:

At a conference between representatives of the leading merchants of the city and a representative of the citizens preparedness parade committee at the Boston Chamber of Commerce, called by the Retail Board of that organization, the route of the preparedness parade to be held on Saturday, May 27, was changed so that the marchers will swing wide of the retail district, and not interfere with the usual Saturday afternoon business.

Under the route as originally planned, the retailers feared that many of the larger stores would be effectually shut off from access during the hours of marching, and accordingly asked the parade committee to change their routing.

NEW ROUTE OF MARCH.

AS there was no reason why the parade needed to go through the retail district, the change was agreed to by R. B. Jones, the member of the parade committee, who conferred with the retailers.

Under the original arrangement the parade would have come through West street and down Tremont, practically cutting the district in half.

The new parade route is:

Mobilize Commonwealth avenue, Newbury, Marlboro and Beacon streets.

Start from junction of Arlington and Beacon streets, pass up Beacon to Somerset street, through Pemberton square and Scollay Square, down Court and State streets to Broad, High, Summer, Lincoln, Kneeland, Eliot, Park Square, Columbus avenue and dismiss in Berkely, Chandler and Appleton streets and Warren avenue.

WILL INVITE MAYORS.

Mayor Curley today announced that he will arrange for a battery on Boston Common to fire a volley of ten guns at the start and a similar volley at the end of the parade.

He said that he would invite Mayors of all the New England cities to be the guests of Boston that day and to march and bring along delegations of at least twenty city officials from each city. He suggests that city officials wear silk hats and frock coats.

He said he would urge city employes to turn out in bodies.

There is no expense.

Remember the committee's telephone is Fort Hill 1145, and the members of the committee will answer all questions, and take your name if you wish to march.

Motorman Goes Through Window as Car Hits Truck

Alfred E. Bates, sixty-three years old, married, of No. 68 Braintree street, Allston, a Boston Elevated motorman, was injured about the head and body when an in-bound Allston-Elevated car which he was driving collided with an automobile truck loaded with crushed stone, in front of No. 1620 Tremont street, Roxbury.

Bates was thrown through the front vestibule of his car, and was picked up in an unconscious condition and taken to the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, nearby, where it was found that he had received a bad scalp wound, and crushed fingers of the left hand, two of which may be amputated.

The automobile truck was slightly damaged. Fred J. Williams, its driver, was uninjured.

Wife Pleads for Man Who Knocked Out Her Teeth

Joseph J. Dwyer went to his home in South Boston the other night somewhat the worse for liquor.

Mrs. Dwyer, his wife and the mother of his three children, tried to persuade him from going out again.

Thereupon Joseph struck her in the face and knocked out three of her teeth.

The husband was in court today before Judge Logan. Mrs. Dwyer was there, too.

"He may do better, judge," said the loyal wife. "Won't you put him on probation?"

And the judge did, after warning Dwyer of stern justice unless he behaved.

Britain May Send 500,000 Unmarried Women to Colonies

London, May 18.—Speaking before the Royal Statistical Society Sir J. Athelstane Baines advocated the suggestion that after the war the 500,000 unmarried women in England be sent to the colonies.

"It is a solution," he declared, "more palatable than one more recently proposed for Germany after the war by one of her numerous learned professors, namely, to let loose from the army a select, certificated body of eligible polygamists who would be respectively provided with equally numerous harems."

NORTH DORCHESTER CLUB TALK TONIGHT

The North Dorchester Club will close its series of popular talks this evening, when the question of old age pensions will be presented by Mr. Wendell P. Thore of Boston, at an open meeting at the club rooms on Dorchester avenue.

TELLS OF TRAILING WOMAN

Concord, N. H., May 18.—"I'm going to get that fellow. I'm going over and beat that fellow up," said Major Ralph Carpenter, when he saw his wife enter the Gables cottages with another man, according to testimony given at the resumption of the Carpenter trial here today by John J. Green, a Boston investigator, who testified today that when the major saw his wife go into the cottage one night with J. Gould Day, one of the correspondents, he wanted to go over and "beat" Day up.

Young Mr. Carpenter glared at Day, the alleged correspondent, who sat in the second row of spectators as this testimony was being offered by Mr. Green.

"IN TRYING POSITION."

Continuing, Mr. Green said:

"I told Ralph that it was a trying position for him to be in and explained to him that, if he dearly loved his wife he would not go over and create a scene. I told him that someone would surely get hurt, either little Ralph, his wife, Day or himself. However, I left it to himself, considering it the course of wisdom."

On direct examination Mr. Green told of his observations of the actions of Mrs. Carpenter and Day on the first and second of September, as follows:

"On the night of September 1st, my first night at Magnolia, I saw Mrs. Carpenter and the little boy go to the Gables cottage after they had dined at the main hotel. They went to their rooms, up one flight. Ten minutes later Mrs. Carpenter returned to the porch on the ground floor.

"The lights were extinguished on the piazza at that time. Shortly she was joined by a man who, I was told, was Mr. Day. Mr. Day remained that night until long after midnight. After they had been on the piazza a few minutes Day left the piazza and started to walk across the street.

SAW "HEADS TOGETHER."

"Mrs. Carpenter followed at him, and he returned. Mrs. Carpenter at this time went upstairs, removed her hat and put on a long coat. She appeared again on the piazza below.

"I saw Day light several matches. On two of these occasions I saw them both standing. On one occasion I saw that they were both occupying one chair. When Day left Mrs. Carpenter that night Day placed his arms about her waist. She put her arms on his breast. I saw their heads together, but not their lips.

"On the night of September 2 I saw practically the same thing, the lighted matches, the embracing on parting. On one of these nights I saw Mrs. Carpenter enter the cottage. Following her closely was Day. They turned to the right as they entered.

"At this point (general French & Streeter took up the cross-examination.

Q.—Was Ralph Carpenter with you when they went into the cottage? A.—Yes.

Q.—What did he do or say? A.—He turned to me and said, "I'm going over and get that fellow. I'm going over and beat that fellow up." It was at that time I advised him.

Q.—When you say you saw them sitting in one chair when the auto lights flashed on them, tell me did they seem flustered. A.—I don't think so.

Q.—Was she cuddled up to him? A.—They apparently were quite close.

Q.—Did she have her arms about his neck? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Did they kiss? A.—No, sir.

FATHER ENDEAVOR CLARK ILL IN KOREA

Dr. Francis E. Clark of Auburndale, president of the World's Christian Endeavor Union, has been seriously ill with pneumonia while attending a Christian Endeavor convention in Korea, according to a message just received at headquarters from Mrs. Clark. Before he had fully recovered he undertook the long journey to Hangchow, China, to attend the All-China Christian Endeavor convention. He was able to attend but one session of the convention when complications developed. He was in the hands of a good doctor and with friends who were doing everything possible for his recovery.

Dr. and Mrs. Clark hoped to be able to sail on the Empress of Russia for Vancouver, May 19, which would bring them to Boston early in June.

ALLEN KELLY, ONCE EDITOR HERE, DEAD

Allen Kelly, a former Boston editor, is dead in Los Angeles at the age of sixty-one. He was born in Cambridge, gained newspaper experience on the Pacific Coast, returned East, wrote editorials for the Boston Globe, became managing editor of the Fall River Globe, then city editor of the New York Sun. In 1887 he went West again, city editor, editorial writer and feature writer successively on the San Francisco Examiner and city editor of the Los Angeles Times.

He was a noted hunter of big game. He captured and brought to San Francisco Monarch, regarded as the finest grizzly bear in captivity, long the star exhibit at the zoo in Golden Gate Park.

CAUGHT BY WHEEL, ENGINEER IS HURT

Skirtless Bathing Suit Creation for Boston's Fair Ones

WITHOUT FRILLS.

The age of the skirtless bathing suit is here, according to those who are always fifteen minutes ahead of the mode, for the seashore apparel for the coming season boasts no frills or skirts. The Perfect Thirty-six will be in her element in one of the new bathing suits, which leaves little to the imagination.

For the young woman who dons the new piece suit and decides to go swimming down at Nantasket there is a skirt made for the suit, which can be carried on the arm and easily adjusted if the minions of the law in that restricted resort demand.

The beaches will see a variety of these one-piece suits, from the plain silk jersey introduced by Annette Kellermann, a variation of the one-piece suit with middy effect, the pinafore style, and a bird from Paris is seen in a one-piece suit of blue and white silk with white silk braid trimmings. The rather full trousers are very short; a white silk blouse and short bolero coat and jaunty cap make up the latter costume.

ROBBER'S VICTIM REFUSES CHARITY

Joseph Denkavich, who was robbed of $50 by means of the old Confederate bill trick, on Atlantic avenue last Monday, and who has steadfastly refused money and assistance from the police, went to work as a longshoreman on one of the banana boats today.

Denkavich, who says he has $500 in a Portland, Me., bank, wired to an uncle in that city immediately after being robbed, but has received no reply. He remained at the City Hall station and refused to accept more than three meals from the officers in that time. Today he vowed he would repay the policemen for those meals as soon as he earns some money. The job was secured for him by a patrolman.

MAN ARRESTED IN PICKPOCKET CHASE

John Gold, twenty-four, of Webster street, Beachmont, was arrested by Patrolman Nye of the City Hall avenue early today as a pickpocket, after a spirited chase.

Gold is believed to be a member of a band of pickpockets who have been plying their trade in the market district in the early morning hours when loads of produce are being auctioned off to small dealers.

Today John Zitzo of Washington street, Brighton, while bidding on produce, felt a hand in his pocket and seized it. He grew wrestling away, and, with two others, darted out of the crowd. Officer Nye gave chase and captured Gold at the corner of Atlantic avenue and Commercial street. He was charged with stealing $24 from some person unknown, and the police are still searching for the person who secured $11 from Zitzo.

KISSING MRS. WAITE CRUSADE FOR DEATH DENIED PENALTY

To the Editor of the Boston AMERICAN:

The members of the Office Employes' Union of this city have recently been much disturbed by the sensational statements that have been reported as emanating from members of the union.

At a special meeting of the organization held yesterday great consternation was expressed at the unsought-for and distasteful notoriety that has suddenly become theirs, and the wish of the union is to deny any statements that may reflect on the seriousness of their purpose as members of organized labor.

What they intend to stand for is a just rate of wages and reasonable working conditions—in fact, just such conditions as a great number of business men who are employers in this city already provide for efficient workers in their offices.

Such articles as have recently been inserted in the papers have naturally been most offensive to both employers and employes, and the members of the union wish to express to the business men of Boston their great regret that this extremely disagreeable situation should have developed.

It is possible that the Baltimore Vice Report, which reveals such a shocking situation in Baltimore offices, may have made such an impression on the reporter that he, unconsciously "wrote in" the evidence given to his Boston story.

The Office Employes' Union find the matter serious enough. Mr. Editor, to warrant the printing of this letter in the Boston AMERICAN, and it sincerely hopes that you will be kind enough to find space for it in your very interesting columns.—Very truly yours,

ALMA WEISSEL, President.

WOMAN OVERCOME BY ESCAPING GAS

Lelia Ehrich, fifty-five, of No. 31 Trenton street, East Boston, was taken to the East Boston Relief Station in an unconscious condition from a leaking jet. The leak was discovered by a woman boarder at the same house.

New York, May 18.—Mrs. Arthur Warren Waite told interviewers that she never had believed in capital punishment, but now thinks it is the only penalty approximating the deserts of her husband, Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, whose trial for the slaying of his wife's father will begin next Monday.

Mrs. Waite assumed that her husband also had slain her mother. His gifted confession of the poisoning and his plot to remove every member of the Peck family standing between him and the Peck fortune did not include a confession of guilt for the death of Mrs. Peck last January.

Of Mrs. Margaret Horton, the "studio" companion of the self-confessed slayer, Mrs. Waite expressed strong condemnation, but declared she would not aid in her prosecution if any develops. Mrs. Waite is living with a friend in Riverside Drive. "I am different from the women of New York," said Mrs. Waite. "I blame the women here as well as the husbands they entangle. Mrs. Horton knew my husband was married. If New York is to be better its women must reform. Personally, I care nothing about the Horton woman. I never think of her. I think she ought to be punished, yes," said Mrs. Waite in reply to a question, "but I will take no action against her.

"Dr. Waite could have had her and a thousand like her if only he had spared me my parents. He has taken those I loved most and he might as well have taken me. I believe he would have done so eventually if he had not been discovered. Life holds nothing for me now."

FIND LOST CUNNIFF GIRL IN CAMBRIDGE

Miss Edna Cunniff, the eighteen-year-old Waltham girl who disappeared from home under circumstances that led her parents to believe she had been lured away, was found by her father, Joseph Cunniff, in North Cambridge, where she was at work in a box factory. The older woman will inform it was thought she ran away, was at work in the same factory.

While you smoke and after you smoke—COMFORT!

You don't care how good a cigarette may taste if, while you are smoking it, that cigarette burns your tongue or "catches" you in your throat.

Fatimas have a good taste but they don't do that—they're cool and comfortable to the throat and tongue while you smoke them.

And better yet, Fatimas leave you feeling comfortable afterwards. You can smoke Fatimas more freely than any other cigarette we know anything about without having any heavy or "mean" feeling of having smoked too much.

That's why they're so SENSIBLE.

May Change Orpet Trial to Get Jury

something about diamonds—diamonds are among turquoises, you know—and about how girls liked to wear them. I remember the girls were giggling, Marian especially. She never paid much attention to her studies anyway.

"She was sitting right near me, and I remember that all of a sudden she stopped giggling and began writing little notations on the margin of the pages containing the lesson for the next day. She turned the pages and marked them rapidly. She was paying the strictest attention when Prof. Cranch told us how deadly cyanides were. It struck me as sort of funny."

Russell showed the margin of his book, which was scrawled with the date, "Prof. Cranch, Feb. 10." It was on that day that the aged father of Marian came across her body in the woods.

POISON CHALLENGED.

The defence will set forth that the girl had unlimited opportunities to get the poison from the large stores kept in her father's workshop. The elder Lambert was head gardener on the Kuppenheimer country estate and used much cyanide in the extermination of insects which attacked the plants. Orpet's attorneys will contend that Marian must have known the deadly qualities of the stuff, being from her station in school and from watching her father spray his plants.

The part which young Russell is expected to play in proving this contention was the only topic of comment about the court room today.

One of the four men who had been tentatively accepted when the trial opened this morning, one was challenged by the defence. He was Herman Albrecht, a farmer.

The trial called an even greater height of tragic intensity today when it became known that Miss Celeste Yonker of DeKalb, who has been regarded as Orpet's fiancee, will testify for the State.

Orpet said, in the statement he made when arrested, that he was engaged to Miss Youker. In the eyes of the prosecution the desire to be free of any entanglement with Marian Lambert, in order that he might be free to wed Celeste Youker, furnishes a motive for the alleged crime.

The news that Miss Youker is to appear against Orpet caused a flutter in the courtroom.

DEMAND GIRL'S AID.

By calling Miss Youker to the stand the State will demand that she help send to execution the youth who is charged with murdering Marian Lambert, his discarded sweetheart, so that the path might be open to marriage with Miss Youker.

The possibility of Lake County not being able to furnish a jury of twelve men to decide the fate of Orpet confronted attorneys in the case today. In the three days of the trial so far more than 250 veniremen, most of them farmers and laborers, have been examined, and when court convened today there were but four men in the box, and those only tentatively accepted.

Despite the stern admonitions of Judge Charles H. Donnelly "to fulfil your duty to the State" the shuffling line continued in and out of the jury box today. Since Marian Lambert's body was found in the snow of Hedman's Woods last February Lake County has done little else but discuss this case. Some there are who declare that while the boy Orpet could not kill a cat, there are others who so vehemently that he forced the poison to the girl's lips as she stood begging him to marry her. Still others evade every service by their opposition to conviction on circumstantial evidence and their opposition to capital punishment.

One of the strange features of the case has been the attitude of women spectators toward the white-faced student.

LAWYER THREATENED.

"Poor boy," has been the exclamation of dozens of women in the court room. State's Attorney Daily, in charge of the prosecution, said today that since the trial started he has received between forty and fifty letters threatening him with dire consequences if Orpet is convicted. Most of them came from women, he believes.

Talesman Bares New Tragedy at Orpet Trial

By EVERETT E. FRIGANZA,
Staff Correspondent Boston American.

Waukegan, Ill., May 18.—A tragedy within a death drama was revealed when Peter Bock, a venireman, tore open a wound in his breast in telling the story of his own little girl, a story that sounds like that of Marian Lambert and happened twenty years ago, to base his excuse in not wishing to sit as a juror at Will Orpet's trial.

State's Attorney Ralph J. Daily was questioning the veniremen. "Is there any reason why you cannot serve as a fair and impartial juror in this case?" he asked of Bock.

Bock hesitated and then told that he once had a little girl, fifteen, who had met death under circumstances similar to Marian Lambert's. Because of this, he said, he did not think he would be fair and open minded in judging the dapper Wisconsin University student.

"She was like a wild rose," related Bock. She was a regular tomboy in our home; the most innocent, the sweetest little thing in the world. She was betrayed. It was a boy she used to run around with. Her mother and I thought they were just playing together and did not object. The boy seemed to be a nice fellow—the son of one of our neighbors.

"Then one morning we found our girl dead. It was never just clear how it happened, but her mother and I decided she had taken the poison herself. Nothing was ever done to the boy and he turned out to be a good enough man.

"But Florence, that was her name, was gone. I can still see her, although it is twenty years since we buried her. And that is why I could not sit on a jury in a case like this. I don't think I could be fair."

His breast was heaving as he left the court room, after being excused by Judge Donnelly. Frank Lambert, father of Marian, sighed as he watched the other go.

GERMANS TELL OF FRENCH REPULSE

By International News Service.

Berlin, May 18.—Three separate attacks were delivered by the French against the German position on Hill No. 304, but were repulsed, the German war office announced today. The assaults followed a vigorous bombardment of the German positions by French artillery.

Infantry fighting has become extremely violent on both sides of the Meuse River in the Verdun sector.

Following is the text of the official report:

"West front—Hand grenade engagements southwest of Leus continue. Thrice more French attacks against the German position on Hill No. 304 this morning were repulsed. The enemy lost heavily during his retreat through Leus, by passing across exposed ground.

"This refers to an attempted attack by a fresh African division, composed of both negro and white troops.

"Southwest of Reichsacker Kopf feeble forces of the enemy tried to advance, but failed completely.

"East front—A hostile aeroplane has been shot down east of Kraschin.

"Balkan front—There is nothing to report."

MME. GADSKI FINDS DEFENDER AT YALE

New Haven, May 18.—Professor Hiram Bingham ridicules the attitude of Walter F. Carter, Yale '95, who wrote to the Yale News protesting against the appearance of Mme. Gadski in the Yale Bowl with the Metropolitan Opera singers on June 5, because her husband is held as a German spy.

Professor Bingham said that in general there is no excuse for mixing up the two ideas of Prussian militarism and German singing.

LINEN SALESMAN FOR 30 YEARS DEAD

George Henry Bemiser, who died Wednesday at the age of seventy-four years at his home, No. 31 Dix place, was one of the oldest and most trustworthy salesmen in the house of R. H. He was personally known to many householders perhaps than any other man in Boston. The funeral was today with interment at Cedar Green Cemetery.

MYSTERY IN FIRE AT MARLBORO CLUB

Marlboro, May 18.—The police are today investigating a mysterious fire which destroyed the Bella Isola cottage, owned by a club of that name, and located on the shores of Fort Meadow. A number of canoes and boats were also burned, the entire loss being placed at $1,000 by the police.

See Nature at Her Very Best in Glacier National Park

The most talked-of place in America for outdoor-loving people is Glacier National Park. It is located in northwestern Montana, and has within its generous boundaries some of the most unsurpassed master-pieces than any similar area in the world.

There are 60 living glaciers in the Park, Blackfoot Glacier alone covering over five square miles. These glaciers feed 250 deep blue or emerald green lakes.

The ice waters of the Park's glacier-fed lakes and streams furnish the angler with any amount of fine-fleshed game—some Rainbow, Cut-Throat, Flat-Head and Lake Trout.

The Park is a veritable garden, as over 60 varieties of wild flowers can be found there, ranging from yellow adder's tongue to gorgeous mountain lilies.

The quarters in the Park are delightful—you have your choice of hotels, chalets or tepee camps. If you "hike" it, you can get along on one dollar a day; other prices are in proportion.

Call at the office, or we will talk it over, or if it is more convenient to send in your address on a postcard, and a folder will receive free of charge, booklet telling of the Park, its surroundings, and the cost of going there, to Mr. WM. HINCKLEY, Passenger Agent, 332 Old South Building, Boston, Mass., and see all there is to see.

DOROTHY DIX ON THE ORPET CASE

DOROTHY DIX

THIS brilliant woman writer has been assigned to write a series of articles on the Chicago trial that is now interesting the whole country. One of these articles will appear in next Sunday's American. Dorothy Dix has made a special study of this most remarkable of modern capital cases.

Miss Dix is mistress of pathos, has a keen eye for the high spots of a big trial and withal neglects not those attractive lesser points which make the whole an article you want to read.

Remember her articles on the Mohr trial in Rhode Island. These will certainly eclipse them.

STORE THIEVES THWARTED BY GIRL CLERK

Miss Emily H. Salles, daughter of Dr. F. M. Salles of Dorchester avenue, Dorchester, is today receiving congratulations of her employer and friends as a result of her cleverness in outwitting three youths who entered Searry's store at Fields Corner, intent on robbery.

Miss Salles and Miss Dollie Bates were the only clerks in the store when the trio entered, leaving a fourth on guard outside.

When one of the men asked Miss Salles the price of a box of handkerchiefs, she became suspicious of the actions of the other two.

She crossed the floor and ordered the men to put back some ties they were handling. They did so and said they wanted a hat. Miss Bates then went into the telephone booth and tried to call the Back Bay police station.

The men got suspicious, however, and started for the door. Miss Salles thereupon called to her assistant to show them some hats and darted out of the door unnoticed.

She ran to the police station and two men were sent to the store. She had hardly left, however, when the men ran down Dorchester avenue and escaped.

Among the delegates selected to attend the inter-settlement convention which opens today in New York city, is Miss Elsie McElaney, who represents the Lincoln House of the South End.

Miss McElaney, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McElaney, graduated last year from Dr. Sargent's School of Physical Education of Cambridge. Since her graduation she has been specializing in corrective gymnastics at the Carney Hospital.

In addition to this, she has been engaged at Lincoln House in evening classes where she has given instruction in gymnastics, dancing and dramatics. Miss McElaney is an ardent believer in equal suffrage and was appointed precinct chairman of Ward 8 a short while ago.

LODGE SCORES FOES OF BIG ARMY BILL

By International News Service.

Washington, May 18.—The Senate, without a roll-call, has agreed to the conference report on the army bill.

This action was taken after four hours of discussion, during which the administration of affairs in Mexico was assailed and the House condemned for insisting on a small army.

Senator Lodge deplored the fact that the coast artillery had to be depleted, that "not a soldier was left on the Atlantic coast from Maine to Fortress Monroe," and that the Pacific coast had been stripped to find troops sufficient to deal with the Mexican situation.

"It seems incredible," he said, "that either branch of Congress should be willing to put $20,000,000 into a nitrate plant and not be willing to give the country soldiers for its defence against troubles so trivial as confront us on the border."

Senator Lewis charged Senator Lodge with attempting to make political capital out of the Mexican situation and said his speech was to be taken as an indictment of the administration.

Lodge denied this and asserted that it was Congress that was responsible for the shortage of men and not the President.

Senator Smith urged that an inquiry be made into the report that the War Department had been advised of the raid that was made at Columbus, N. M. Senators Fall and Smith of New Mexico declared there were not enough troops along the border to insure protection to American life and property.

Senator Stone said there were ample troops in Mexico and suggested that the arguments of Republican Senators seemed to be based upon the fear of war with some strong nation. This idea he scouted as a groundless fear.

HAD "OFTEN HEARD NAME OF BRYAN"

New York, May 18.—A young Brooklynite, in the wings of the Brooklyn Opera House stage, seized the hand of William Jennings Bryan, who was about to lecture there, and shook it vigorously.

"I'm very proud to meet you, Mr. Bryan, very proud," he said. The peace advocate beamed upon the youth.

"Yes," added the young man, "Mr. Bryan, I—I've often heard of you!"

The former Secretary of State proceeded to the stage and sat down thoughtfully.

"SPOONING PARLOR" TO CORRECT CUPID

New York, May 18.—The uplift movement has struck Dan Cupid. Hereafter the young folks of Dobbs Ferry, Irvington and Ardsley-on-Hudson are invited to do their courting in a special "spooning parlor" in the new clubhouse of the Welfare Association which hopes to discipline young love and introduce efficiency into the business of "keeping company."

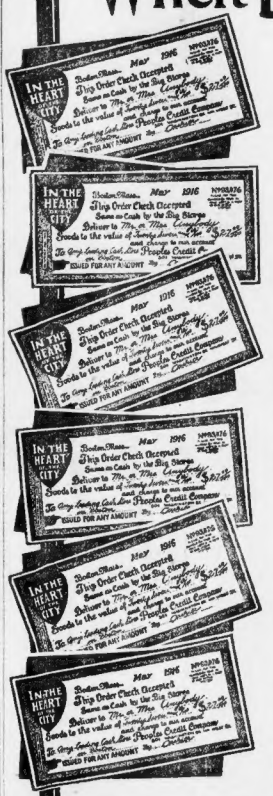
ORDER CHECK

Saves You Money
When Buying on Credit—
Taken As Cash



IN THE DEPARTMENT STORES AND OTHER SHOPS . . . . .

WHAT a wonderful money saving and accommodating institution N. Sallinger's order check really is—The big stores advertise their marvelous bargains—The thrifty, wide awake woman sees a splendid opportunity to save quite a few dollars on a suit, dress, coat or something else equally necessary for the family or the home.

$1.00 A WEEK

But at just the time the big bargains are advertised she finds she has not the ready money.

WHY SHE IS NOT OBLIGED TO LOSE THE BARGAIN

It is only necessary for her to call at the Peoples Credit Co., 501 Washington St., and get N. Sallinger's Order Check for any amount she desires. This check is a substitute for CASH—a perfectly legal credit currency taken at the stores as cash.

It Is Not Considered True Economy to Miss Money-Saving Bargain Opportunities

N. SALLINGER'S Order Check is designed to accommodate the people who have not sufficient basis for credit to open an account with the big department and other stores—Naturally, these people were unable to take advantage of the great bargain sales and other quality getting and money saving opportunities presented by the stores. N. Sallinger's Order Check makes it possible for every one to share alike and at the same prices every advantage given by the big department stores and other shops of this city.

U. S. CONSULS IN MEXICO TO MEET AND REPORT TO CAPITAL

By International News Service.

Washington, May 18.—All American consuls in Northern Mexico are to confer shortly at El Paso and inform American military authorities of the true situation in Mexico, it was announced today at the War Department.

They are to inform General Funston and others just what steps, if any, have been taken by Carranzistas toward the protection of Americans in Mexico, the capturing of Villa and the dispersing of bandits near the American border. Those expected to give the most valuable information are Consul Letcher of Chihuahua, Simpich at Nogales and Edwards at Juarez.

The consuls are to confer as soon as they arrive at El Paso and are first to compile their information into one report, which will then be given to the army leaders.

They are to remain in conference so long as the army leaders deem necessary to get at the truth as to conditions.

Confirmation was received by the War Department of the rescue of Jesse Deemer and Monroe Payne, the Americans captured at Glen Springs by Mexican bandits. General Funston reported that the men were rescued by Major Langhorne's cavalry. A dispatch at the same time from Colonel Sibley through General Funston said two bandits had been captured and others wounded in a small engagement, the location of which was not given.

General Funston reported that Major Langhorne's forces are still in pursuit of the bandits, moving toward Sierra Blanca, and that he "expects another early engagement."

It is admitted that on this report hinges the question of intervention in Mexico. Should it be revealed in the report, as army officers expect, that Obregon is actually contemplating breaking loose from Carranza's de facto organization, it is admitted in official circles that intervention will be almost certain.

"Langhorne's Ride" Saved Americans

By BASIL DILLON WOON.

Major Langhorne's Headquarters, Rancho Cerro Blanco, Coahuila, Mex., May 15.—By courier to Marathon, Texas, May 18.—"Langhorne's ride" will be known in the same column as "Dodd's ride" and other kindred cavalry achievements of the Mexican expedition. There are those who say that as a cavalry dash that of Langhorne is without parallel since the Civil War.

With but 120 men, the cavalry officer, carrying with him orders to rescue Jesse Deemer and Monroe Payne and to disperse the bandits who captured them, left Candler's Ranch and the Rio Grande, fourteen miles east of Boquillas last Friday at 3 p. m.

At the ranch of Manuel Sanchez, where it had been planned to camp that night, a Mexican rode up on a mule and handed a piece of paper to Major Langhorne.

It was a note from the man they were looking for. It said that the writer was a prisoner of the bandits on Rancho El Pino, forty-four miles from Rancho Manuel Sanchez. In a room in the northeast corner of the building, that the bandits were willing to exchange Payne and himself for their tenients colonel whom the Americans had in tow.

FORCED ADVANCE.

Major Langhorne read the note and held a brief consultation with his supporting officers. Then he spoke to his men.

"Our horses are tired," he said, "and on men are sleepy and need a night's rest. I have information that the men we are after are forty miles away. Shall we go after them?"

There wasn't any doubt about the answer. Within fifteen minutes the order to "saddle up" was given, and the entire command at 10 o'clock at night rode fifteen miles out into a lonely pass of the San Vicente Mountain. There twenty-five men dismounted and got in the motor truck. With the three other machines loaded with armed men to their capacity the truck then moved ahead. The mounted men followed behind more slowly.

Major Langhorne's plan was for a sudden dash on the bandits' headquarters, a quick recapture of Deemer and Payne and extermination of the bandit band. The plan would have succeeded but for the truck. Perhaps the blame should not be wholly placed on that truck. The truck broke down twenty-two miles from El Pino, and when the cavalry arrived camp was made at Casa Piedra.

The column reached there just at dawn, having completed a record march of seventy-one miles since daybreak the day before. Men rolled off their saddles and slept where they fell. Horses strayed away, searching the tall sacaton, and were led back. Captain Rhea and Captain Kilpatrick themselves guarded the picket line that morning, forbearing to wake the men.

The next day was spent in camp at Casa Priedo, but at 10 o'clock a second dash was started to free Deemer.

That's the story of the rescue of Deemer. Six hours later and the bandits would have returned. And then—

"Well," said Deemer, philosophically, "I guess they'd taken us into the mountains and you'd never have got us."

In a long range engagement near Cerro Blanco, Lieutenant Cramer, with a detachment of twenty men, captured one of the bandits and thinks he wounded several others.

The main body of bandits is today reported at San Santiey, thirty miles from here.

Major Langhorne, without rations or forage, is pushing on. Colonel Sibley, with two troops of the Fourteenth Cavalry, is reported at Rancho Manuel Sanchez.

COSTELLO WILL CASE IS SETTLED

Lowell, May 18.—The Costello will contest, which has been on trial for four days past, was settled in the Superior Court today before Judge Bell by an agreement between council. Mrs. Phoebe Trider, the contestant, alleged that her sister was of unsound mind. The estate involved amounts to $35,000.

CHICAGO TO PARADE FOR PREPAREDNESS

Chicago, May 18.—Chicago's great preparedness parade will be held on Saturday, June 3. The organization committee that selected this date decided at the same time that June 3 should be observed as national preparedness day.

Queen, Safe from Air Bombs, Cries 'Long Live Italy'

Rome, May 18.—Information reaching here is to the effect that the Austrian air raid over the Venice district had as its object the destruction of the royal train on which Queen Helena and the Princess Yolanda were returning from a visit to the front.

A few minutes before the train left the aeroplanes appeared and dropped numerous bombs on the entire district, some of which struck the railway station, causing some damage. A panic ensued and a number of women fainted. The Queen hastened from the train to reassure the crowd.

It is also learned that Austrian planes attacked a train bearing the Princesses Mafalda and Udina.

News of the attacks led to large crowds congregating at stations along the route of the royal train. At Padua the crowd broke through the police lines as the Queen and Princess appeared unhurt, and cried: cried:

"Long live the Queen and Princess."

The Queen replied:

"Long live Italy."

STUDENTS SWIM ON BASEBALL GROUNDS

Durham, N. H., May 18.—Petteo Brook overflowed, gullying Garrison avenue for a distance of 40 feet. The Kappa Sigma fraternity house is surrounded by a pond twelve feet deep. Students living there were cut off from attending classes, but swimming was indulged in on the grounds where baseball was played two days before.

LYNN MAN DROWNED FISHING IN MAINE

Word has been received here of the drowning of George H. Newhall of Lynn by the upsetting of a canoe, from which he was fishing on the lake at Katahdin Iron Works. The body has not been recovered.

Mr. Newhall was manager of the Maine branch of a photoplay film concern, with headquarters in Bangor.

Mr. Newhall, although warned by his guide that the wind was blowing too hard for safety with a canoe, paddled out some distance from the shore, and the canoe was seen to capsize.

Newhall was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen P. Newhall of Silsbee street.

PAINT SHOP FIRE SCARES HARVARD

Damage was done to the Harvard paint shop, in the rear of Lawrence Hall, by a fire, which broke out in a workman's locker.

The fire was confined to two rooms and did not reach Lawrence Hall, where preparations were being made to remove the important documents of the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

Austrian University Reopened

Berlin, May 18.—After being closed for two years on account of the Russian invasion, the Austrian university at Czernowitz, the capital of Bukowina, has been reopened, notwithstanding the fact that the fighting front is only a short distance from the city.

SOMERVILLE MAN RECOVERS HEALTH

John Doherty of No. 8 Lowell Street Says Plant Juice Has Cured His Stomach Trouble.

Science and philanthrophy are doing much for the diseased sufferer of the future. Plant Juice, the new herbal system tonic, has done more for the ills of today, and thousands have willingly testified to the truth of this statement, for in the discovery of Plant Juice and the consequent use and benefits derived by a multitude who have suffered from stomach, liver and kidney trouble, it has proven itself a real friend to humanity.

The kind of proof that is convincing and that is daily added to thousands in the already great number who use Plant Juice, when in a condition of ill health, are the statements of local people who have given it a fair trial and have been benefited thereby. Here is one instance, a typical testimonial of Mr. John Doherty, who lives at No. 8 Lowell street, Somerville, a popular employee of the Boston Street Railway Company, states:

"For six years I have been troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia and nothing I could use seemed to agree with me. I could not take any solid food into my stomach, as it gave me such pain, and I felt as if I would die at times. My liver was torpid, which caused me to become very dizzy; I had headaches, could not sleep at night and felt very weak and all run down and had to quit work. For months I lived on tea and toast and felt very blue and discouraged. So I was told that there was no relief for me from my troubles. One day a friend of mine who had had stomach trouble told me that Plant Juice had cured him and advised me to try it. I did so, and am glad to state that I am today a well man entirely cured by Plant Juice. I gladly recommend it to others who suffer."

The Plant Juice Man is at the Drug Department of the Houghton & Dutton Store, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.—Advertisement.

The Call to Arms

When Israel Putnam received the news that the shot had been fired that was "heard 'round the world," he was busily engaged in ploughing a field. He immediately cut the traces of the horse from the plough, jumped upon his back and hastened to Lexington.

The call to arms abroad today carries with it the call for good rations. "War bread" is just as necessary as war munitions.

Bread is the most nourishing and most economical of all foods. Everybody should

METHODISTS DEMAND NATIONAL MOVEMENT FOR PROHIBITION

By International News Service.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., May 18.—Amid a storm of applause the Methodist Episcopal General Conference today unanimously adopted the report of the committee on temperance, which praised the national prohibition movement and bitterly denounced the liquor traffic. The report was read by Judge Charles A. Allack, of Fargo, N. D. It says:

"It is the most prolific cause of insanity, crime and poverty, the most insidious despoiler of legitimate business; the most corrupt influence in politics and the most dangerous enemy to human welfare in all our civil life.

"Statesmanship, neeleraftfiical and civil, have denounced it; science has condemned it; business is arraying itself against it; politics is struggling to be freed from its grasp; labor seeks escape from its degrading mercilessbondage and the embattled nations of half the world find it a more deadly foes than any they have met on war's red field.

"The expansion of religion and the preservation of civilisation require its overthrow—its complete and utter annihilation."

By the adoption of the report the conference went on record against the issuance of internal revenue tax receipts by the federal government and urged Congress to pass immediately laws prohibiting all interstate commerce in intoxicating liquors and forbidding the use of mails to liquor shipments and advertisements. It also demanded that Congress promptly submit to the legislatures of the several States for their ratification an amendment to the federal constitution providing for absolute prohibition of the liquor trade through the United States. The license system was denounced as a "colossal blunder because it is wrong in principle, lame in logic and a failure in practice."

The various temperance agencies were commended.

BANISHED HIS DESIRE FOR TOBACCO

A Kansas Man Tells of a Simple Home Recipe That Broke Him of Using Tobacco.

Mr. John Miller, living at Waverly, Kas., after using tobacco 20 years, banished his desire for tobacco with a simple recipe which he mixed at home. In a recent statement Mr. Miller said: "I could not stop tobacco of my own accord, so used the following simple recipe almost two years ago and have not touched tobacco since. To 3 oz. of water add 20 grains of muriate of ammonia, a small box of Varlex Compound, and 10 grains of pepsin. Take a teaspoonful three times a day. As it has no color or smell it can be given secretly in tea, coffee, milk or in food. Any druggist can fill this recipe at very little cost, and it certainly will banish all desire for tobacco."

Lowell Woman Ends Her Life by Leap Into Canal

Lowell, May 18.—In full view of a number of mill workers on their way to work, Mary E. Donnelly, employed by the Lawrence Manufacturing Company, threw herself into the Suffolk canal and was drowned early today.

No effort was made to rescue the woman, as she failed to come to the surface, and her body was later recovered, caught by a projection on the side of the canal.

Miss Donnelly, who was the daughter of Fred Donnelly of Suffolk street, had been complaining of ill health for some time. She was thirty-two years of age.

TELEGRAPHERS CHOOSE MEN TO CONFER

At a meeting of Commercial Telegraphers' Union, Local No. 4, in Commercial Hall, No. 624 Washington street, Secretary-treasurer William T. Yetman, who presided, went over the situation arising from the discharge of eleven operators by the Western Union on charges of union affiliations and outlined the course of procedure ordered by International President Konenkamp of Chicago.

Chairman Yetman said developments would depend mainly on the work of a committee to be chosen at the same hall tonight. This committee will wait upon Chief Operator Jost, at Hex, and demand the reinstatement of those men who have not already secured other positions.

Executive Board Chairman James J. Metzarty also spoke.

The open meeting of all Western Union operators will be postponed until the result of the committee's negotiations are ascertained.

In case a strike is called it will affect only the Western Union.

Fletcher to Be Retired June 19 as Fleet Head

By International News Service.

Washington, May 18.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels announced today, following a conference with President Wilson, that on June 19 Admiral Frank Fletcher would be retired as commander of the Atlantic fleet. He will be succeeded, it was stated, by Vice-Admiral of the Fleet Henry T. Mayo, who acquired fame when he made the demand that Mexican troops at Tampico salute the United States flag.

Secretary Daniels said Admiral Fletcher had served the usual time as commander of the fleet and that there was nothing unusual in the change. He said that later Admiral Fletcher would be given an important shore assignment.

Admiral Mayo will be succeeded as Vice Admiral of Rear Admiral Coffman, former commandant of the Charlestown navy yard, at present commanding the seventh division of the Atlantic fleet.

U. S. RUSHES 500 MARINES TO SAN DOMINGO

By International News Service.

Washington, May 18.—Five hundred additional marines, now in Port au Prince, Haiti, are to be taken to Santo Domingo at once to reinforce the 500 marines at present in that city.

It was learned at the Navy Department today that Admiral Caperton, commanding the marine forces around Haiti and Santo Domingo, already has sent the Dolphin to Port au Prince to get the marines and take them to Santo Domingo.

Navy officials are without definite information as to conditions in Santo Domingo. Admiral Caperton has been given orders to move his forces about as he pleases. It was denied at the Navy Department today that he was appealed for more marines at Santo Domingo. It was said the only word from him was that he was moving more marines there as a precautionary measure.

U. S. AGENT AFTER SOUTHERN TRADE

Herman C. Brock of Brockton, special agent of the Foreign and Domestic Trade Commission of the Department of Commerce, sailed today on the United Fruit liner Esparta for Cuba. He will spend some time in Cuba and in South America investigating the shoe and leather trade, with an idea of gaining more exports in these lines to the countries to the south.

How the Texas Tube test happened!

IT nettled Bill Parr considerably!

So many Motorists had carelessly stated that "all Tire Tubes are just Rubber."

He determined to show some folks the difference, in a way they would never forget.

There were four Cars at the door, and their Owners or Drivers at his elbow.

To these he said,—

"Boys,—how strong do you think this Goodrich Brown Tube actually is?

"Do you believe it is strong enough to tow Mr. Oden's five passenger Car, with four people in it, from here for 20 blocks?

"You don't, eh!

"Well now here's a bit of a Bet I want to make with any, or all, of you.

"I will bet you a Dinner that this little old regular Goodrich Tube (34x4) will not only tow Mr. Oden's Car, but will tow all three of your Cars,—fully passengered,—through the streets, for the full 21 blocks (more than a mile and a half)—starting and stopping as many times as the crowd makes it necessary.

"I will,—if you Gentlemen are agreeable,—line up all four of your Cars, right here and now, take three regular Goodrich Tubes hap-hazard out of their boxes,—tie one tube between each two Cars, (which means hauling three Cars on the first Tube) and tote You-all that way to 'The Corners.'

"Are you willing to bet a Dinner that any one of the three Tubes will 'go broke' on the way, or show a flaw which would leak Air, or prevent its being used for its original Tire purpose afterwards?

"You are, eh?

"Well,—the Bet's on!

"Come along, and you be the Judges."

THE Dinner was a very Cheerful Affair.

As Oden said afterwards (when putting up his share of the Bet) "you could have bet me a Million on that, Parr, and I'd have taken you up,—even if I had to borrow the Million.

"I don't see how the blamed Tubes ever did hold out,—especially going up Saco St. under such a strain.

"With eight people in the last three Cars,—and a total load of over 8,800 pounds I sure thought to hear something snap before second block.

"Whaddye put into that brown Goodrich Rubber anyhow, to make it hang together like that?"

Fritz said that what puzzled him most was the brown Rubber Tubes "not being all stretched out of shape after such a tug, even if they did hang together at the finish.

"Look you," said he, "when we released the load,—after the Haul,—they instantly snapped back into just three-quarters of an inch longer than they were at the start!

"And that ¾ of an inch, they took up again in less than two hours rest."

"WELL, boys."—Bill Parr remarked,—as he smoothed out a wrinkle in his well-filled vest, "that'll stop the Argument about all Tire Tubes being 'just Rubber,' won't it?

"If the Brown Stuff that toted all you Heavyweights,—and your Cars,—for 21 Blocks without a Sign of Heavy Duty afterwards, isn't something MORE than 'Just Rubber,' like other Tubes,—then you'd better buy the 'Just Rubber' kind hereafter.

"I'm going to ask all of you to sign your names to this 'Texas Tire Tube Test.'—just to show that you have taken part in a regular Exploit which is mighty well worth recording."

So indeed they did,—and here is the affidavit!

AFFIDAVIT

This certifies that we, the undersigned, took part in and witnessed, the Texas tube test referred to in the advertisement entitled "How the Texas Tube Test Happened!"—that the test was made on date of Nov. 11, at Waco, Texas, the distance covered being twenty-one blocks and that the result was as described.

Signed— W. M. ODEN
J. M. NASH
B. A. FRITZ
W. A. PARR

Subscribed and sworn to before me by W. M. Oden, J. M. Nash, B. A. Fritz and W. A. Parr, this the 3rd day of May, A.D. 1916, at Waco, Texas.

Signed— J. G. WREN,
Notary Public,
McLennon County, Texas.

Now what think You of these GOODRICH Tire Tubes that could bear up under such a gruelling test?

Reflect that they cost you no more than the "ordinary" Tubes you so carelessly accept!

TRACE AMERICAN MONEY TO IRELAND TO AID IN UPRISING

had been received by the Irish insurrectionists from the United States. The intimation, however, was that the donors of the money did not want to what use it was being put.

MANIFESTOES ISSUED.

The official title of the inquisitorial body is "A commission of inquiry into the causes of rebellion in Ireland and into the conduct and degree of responsibility of the military and civil executive in Ireland."

It was brought out that the leaders of the secessionists issued manifestoes during the spring inviting the country to provide for its own defence with a standing army and trained volunteer corps. The rebels also called upon the people to resist by armed force any attempts to force Irishmen into military service until "a free national government was established."

"It was not until three days before the outbreak that definite proof was received of the connection of the Irish party in Ireland with a foreign enemy," said Sir Mathew.

"A memorandum in the possession of the leader stated that the German conspirators contemplated offensive on land, sea and air in order to secure victory before May and requested the Irish volunteers to be prepared to render prompt assistance.

"On March 16 some of the young volunteers were anxious to commence immediately, but the leaders were against a rising then, Thomas MacDonagh stating it was their conclusion if the help promised was not forthcoming.

"Afterwards it was impossible to trace the method by which funds were transmitted from America.

"The volunteers alone were not equipped for a long campaign," said Sir Mathew. "The majority were untrained and not sufficiently armed for an encounter with trained troops. It was felt that raids for arms or attempted disarmament by the government would lead to bloodshed.

POLICE ON GUARD.

"It was learned that attempts would be made to land arms from a German submarine. The police and military on the coast were ordered to be on their guard. Information that Dublin Castle would be attacked the same night led to special precautions.

"Apart from the general ultimate futility of their conduct the insurrectionists showed greater organization and military skill than had been attributed to them. The volunteers appeared to have acted with great courage.

"Impetus was given to the national volunteer movement by fear that conscription would be applied to Ireland, and it brought numerous men into the Sinn Fein movement. The number at the beginning of the disturbance was estimated at 15,000, including 12,000 in the provinces (outside of Dublin). The Dublin corps numbered about 3,000.

"A paid organizer was sent into the provinces. The police estimated before the outbreak of the insurrection that the volunteers had 1,886 rifles, pistols and pop guns, 825 rifles in Dublin alone.

LEADERS ARRESTED.

"Association of the leaders with a foreign enemy was sufficient to justify the arrest of the chieftains, which was decided upon.

"On April 24, whilst matters were being discussed at Dublin Castle, pistol shots rang out.

The Royal Irish Constabulary was considered strong enough to cope with disorders. A mobile force of 2,000 men, 500 mounted, and three machine guns, was always in readiness. These with 2,500 men from Curragh were thought capable of dealing with the outbreak in Dublin, but contrary to expectations, they were insufficient."

Premier Asquith arrived at Cork from Dublin today. The Premier is making a complete investigation of the situation in southern Ireland.

The Premier, it is stated, is convinced that a radical change in the form of government is essential, and that the more quickly this is done the better it will be. His present trip has already proven to him that the old form of government, the so-called "castle rule," has had its day.

THE BETTER THE HOPS
THE BETTER THE BEER FLAVOR

ANHEUSER-BUSCH have by many thousands of pounds more Saazer Hops in their giant storage houses than has any other brewery in Europe or America. Before the war our President, while abroad on his annual hop-buying pilgrimage, bought 775,000 pounds (1550 bales) of Bohemia's very finest Saazer Hops. To this add the 500,000 pounds we had on hand, and you will see that we can guarantee our millions of patrons that BUDWEISER will continue, as always, to have the same exclusive Saazer Hop flavor which has helped its sales to exceed any other beer by millions of bottles.

DR. ALFRED D. SHEA of Cambridge, pardoned by Governor's Council, who figures in lost baby mystery in court.

you to produce the child? A.—Yes, but I don't know where it is.

Q.—Did you tell five different people that you never had a child? A.—Yes.

Dr. Shea was then called to testify. He said:

"Mrs. McDonough's baby was born a few minutes after she reached my house. I suggested placing it in Brighton, and I gave it to a family in Brighton. I think their name was Dalton. I don't know their address.

"Miss Lane, who worked for me, witnessed the birth, but she died last Monday.

"There is a birth record in the Cambridge City Hall, but no record that the child was given to the Dalton family."

Q.—Can you tell us where the child can be found? A.—Probably in Clinton.

Q.—Are you sure the name was Dalton? Quite sure.

Attorney Vahey cross-examined.

Q.—Are you the same Dr. Shea who was convicted and sent to prison for illegal surgery? A.—That has nothing to do with the case.

Judge Hardy—You are to answer the question, to ascertain if you are telling the truth.

A.—Yes.

Q.—You five two blocks from the Cambridge City Hall? A.—Yes.

Q.—Do you recall the name under which you registered this child's birth? A.—I think it was the mother's name.

Q.—Did she tell you the first name of the baby? A.—I think it was John.

Q.—When did you register the baby? A.—The day the child was born.

Q.—Don't you know that the birth is not registered there? A.—I know it is registered there.

Q.—How did it happen that the baby was born in your house? A.—Mrs. McDonough did not want friends to know of it.

He was asked to describe the Daltons. "Mrs. Dalton was of medium height, about thirty-five, gray-haired and wore no glasses," he said. "Mr. Dalton was taller, smooth-shaven, forty, and wore no glasses."

Q.—Was Miss McDonough very fond of the child? A.—Yes; she wanted to know if she could see it.

Q.—Do you know whether the child is alive or dead? A.—No.

Assistant District Attorney Melsaac then said:

"As a result of the testimony of the last witness, I think I will ask your honor to bring in a verdict for the defendant."

Judge Hardy—If the jury returned a verdict of guilty I would set it aside. I instruct the jury to return a verdict of not guilty.

The jury did so.

CRAFT IS SAVED AFTER 2 DAYS IN STORM

After being adrift for forty-eight hours with a northeaster blowing their water-filled schooner about, Captain M. C. Miller and the five members of the crew of the three-masted British schooner Elma, from St. John, N. B., was towed to T wharf today by the tug E. D. Haley.

The Elma left St. John on May 13 with a cargo of spruce for Elizabethport, N. J. Last Tuesday morning she was sixty miles off Pollock Rip when the storm struck. She was so deeply loaded that she could not heave to, and the seas began to come aboard. The gasoline pump was soon out of commission. Late yesterday, when off the Highlands, the wind died down, but a heavy sea was running, and the Elma started drifting towards the ledges.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Destroy the cause—the bowels and the liver with Olive Tablets.

The Edwards' Olive Tablets are the successful substitute for calomel—they never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad complexion or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Only Way to Stop Food Fermentation

Neutralize Stomach Acidity, Prevent Indigestion by Taking a Little Magnesia.

It is the gas generated by sour, fermenting food that distends your stomach and causes you to have a flushed face after eating, with headaches, heartburn, flatulence, sour belching, etc., and the reason why drugs and pepsin pills and various digestive aids do not give you relief is that they leave little or no effect upon the acidity that ferments in your stomach and which physicians have proved is the chief cause of practically all forms of stomach trouble. An absolutely pure calcined or neutralizing agent must be used to neutralize the harmful stomach acid, and there is nothing better for this purpose than ordinary Bisurated Magnesia. You can obtain bisurated magnesia at practically any drug store in either powder or tablet form. It cannot injure the stomach, a teaspoonful or the majority of cases a teaspoonful of the powder or two tablets, taken after meals or when needed, will be found quite sufficient to instantly neutralize excessive acidity of the stomach and thus prevent all possibility of indigestion.

"Foam Holding" Quality Denotes Exceptional Beer

Only beers brewed from the better grades of barley malt can give that rich, thick, creamy foam—that makes beer so appetizing.

It's one of the tests that show quality. Our Master Brewer has met the test in

ROESSLE PREMIUM LAGER

When you pour Roessle from the bottle notice its rich, creamy head. It is no wonder that people call "Roessle" —THE MASTER BREWER'S MASTER BREW. When you order beer from your dealer—tell him YOU WANT ROESSLE. Drink this beer, which has all the perfections in brewing.

Roessle Brewery, 1280 Columbus Avenue, Roxbury, Mass.

PLAN COMBINE OF FILMS, DRUGS AND CIGARS

New York, May 18.—Comprehensive plans for a combination of motion picture theatres, cigar stores and pharmacies, in all the large cities of the country, were partly consummated when affiliated financial interests in this city acquired substantial holdings in the Vitagraph Company of America.

The new interests will be represented on the Vitagraph's board of directors by R. B. Hampton, vice president of the American Tobacco Company; H. H. Vreeland, the traction magnate, and Clendening J. Ryan.

The company has sold $1,000,000 one to five year six per cent. first mortgage notes to Hornblower & Weeks. These will be offered to the public soon.

The plan, it is understood, will provide for a chain of motion picture theatres, which will be housed in the same building with Tuteu Cigar stores and Hegeman drug stores. According to an authority, cigar and drug stores will be on each side of the entrance to the Vitagraph theatres.

It is the belief of promoters that the patrons of motion picture theatres are the largest consumers of candy and tobacco, and the location of stores and theatres in close proximity will result in increased business.

Mr. Hampton will take an active part in the management of the Vitagraph company, when it enters the retail motion picture field. Steps will be taken, it is said, to put the motion picture business on a strictly commercial basis. The artistic, rather than business domination heretofore, it is declared, has kept earnings lower than they should have been.

Woman Dies of Injuries.

Lyme Centre, N. H., May 18.—Mrs. Clarina Hobbs is dead as result of injuries received when she and Mrs. Isaac Ellsworth were thrown from a runaway. One of the hobbacks broke. The horse bolted. Mrs. Ellsworth was severely bruised.

SOCIETY HAPPENINGS

MISS HOSMER IS AT 'CATSBURG'

MRS. JOHN BALCH IS ENTERTAINED AT TEA

MISS ESTHER HOSMER.

She is now undergoing military training at the "Plattsburg" camp for women.

Notable among the Boston society girls who are now undergoing military training at the "Plattsburg" camp for women, near Washington, D. C., is Miss Esther Hosmer, who made her society bow here over a year ago.

She came out with the Misses Isabella Lee and Louise White, who are also members of the "Plattsburg" group. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hosmer, of No. 74 Hay State road, and is a niece of Mrs. Parker Bremer of Marlboro street.

Miss Hosmer, who belongs to the Sewing Circle and the Vincent Club, assisted at several notable coming out events during her debutante year.

Mrs. Thomas Allen of No. 14 Commonwealth avenue, entertained at a ten today in honor of Mrs. John Balch of Milton. The members of the anti-suffrage chapter of the Civic Club of Radcliffe were invited to meet Mrs. Balch, who is president of the Anti-Suffrage Association of Massachusetts. Mrs. Allen was assisted by Miss Dorothy Conklin, president of the chapter, and Mrs. James D. Colt of Chestnut Hill.

o o o

Among the patronesses for the plays to be presented today by "The Pretenders" at the Chestnut Hill Club are Mrs. William S. Allen, Mrs. Charles H. Flake, Jr., Mrs. Reginald Gray, Mrs. Clement S. Houghton, Mrs. Herbert Jaques, Mrs. Allston Burr, Mrs. Charles A. Coolidge, Mrs. John Lewell, Mrs. Frederick S. Clark, Mrs. George S. Mumford, Mrs. Thomas T. Baldwin, Mrs. George C. Crocker, Mrs. Henry W. Bliss, Mrs. William H. Aspinwall, Mrs. Howard Elliott, Mrs. George S. Baldwin and Mrs. Benjamin S. Blanchard.

o o o

The "Garden Sale," under society patronage began today at Horticultural Hall. The advisory committee of the sale is composed of Mrs. Charles Breck, Mrs. Margaret Deland, Mrs. Mary Morton Kehew, Mrs. Robert Gould Shaw, Miss Sarah Crocker and Mrs. Francis King. The affair is given by the Women's Educational and Industrial Union, in connection with the annual conference of the Women's National Agricultural and the Horticultural Association.

HOLD COUPLE AT ATLANTA FROM NORTH SHORE

Atlanta, Ga., May 18.—A pathetic tale of shattered love was unfolded to Chief Mayo by Miss Katherine Black, 28 years old, of Manchester, Mass. She accused George Lakin, 29 years old, of the same place. Lakin is being held and Miss Black is being detained as a witness.

Lakin and Miss Black have been in Atlanta only a few days. They are said to have come here from Mobile.

"I have tried my hard to live right," Miss Black told Chief Mayo. "I love this man here. I can't help it, but he refuses to marry me. I hate to have him punished, but I am afraid I never can be good as long as he refuses to do what he promised."

During her story a boy of 5 clung to Miss Black's skirts. Miss Black told Chief Mayo that Lakin was the father of the child and that it was born in Massachusetts.

Miss Black added that Lakin not only refused to support her, but insisted on her leading an improper life to furnish him with money.

United States authorities are making investigation to find if there is ground for charges under the Mann act.

PUNCH HAS WILSON FEEDING GERMANY

London, May 18.—Punch publishes a cartoon showing President Wilson offering to the German Eagle a "humble pie" with a label attached, inscribed "A present from the United States of America." The inscription beneath the cartoon reads:

"Something to go on with, President Wilson to the German Eagle: 'Poor old bird! Did it say it was being starved.' Well, here's a nice square meal for it."

TO END CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ½ pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness should give this prescription a trial.—Advertisement.

SCALE COVERED DAUGHTER'S FACE

And Head. Thought She Would Lose Eyesight. Itched Continually. Disfigured Terribly.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"When my daughter was four weeks old she had a dreadful scale which covered her face and head, and we thought for a time she would lose her eyesight. At first the skin was inflamed, and it itched continually and she could not sleep day or night. At last little red pimples with infected heads appeared and where the pimples had been, there would appear a horrid scale. It disfigured her terribly.

"Then I thought I would try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After the third application we could see a marked improvement, and in a short time she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Geo. Paddock, New Canaan, Conn., July 24, 1915.

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "Tiz."

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, sore-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and from they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.—Advertisement.

ASTHMA SUFFERERS

MAKES BREATHING EASY.

In New England where Bronchitis, Asthma and other diseases of the throat and lungs are so prevalent, some wonderfully speedy recoveries have recently been effected by the use of a treatment known as Oxidase, first introduced by Dr. Eugene Howard, a prominent physician, and now placed on the market by the American Oxidase Co., Worcester, Mass.

Oxidase, which is a powerful, but highly concentrated combination of curative agents, comes compressed in a small tablet which is painless dissolves in the mouth. One of these simple and pleasant tasting tablets put in the mouth just before going to bed clears out all the clogged up air passages, soothes the irritated bronchial tubes and enables the asthmatic sufferer to breathe easily and naturally while lying down and to get the comfortable night's sleep. Oxidase tablets are harmless, contain no dangerous habit-forming drugs and are not at all expensive. Oxidase tablets are for sale by all leading druggists.—Advertisement.

You Can Stop Drinking

You had better stop at once or you'll lose your job. Every line of business is closing its doors to "Drinking" men. It may be your turn next. By the aid of ORRINE thousands of men have been restored to lives of sobriety and industry.

We are so sure that ORRINE will benefit you that we say to you that if after a trial you fail to get any benefit from its use, your money will be refunded.

ORRINE is for home use, thus making loss of time at a sanitarium unnecessary. Costs only $1.00 per box. Call at our store and get a free booklet on ORRINE. ORRINE CO., Washington, D. C. For sale by The Liggett-Jaynes Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

A Big Rochester Clothier's

STOCK TO BE SOLD IN OUR

GREAT FIFTEEN

DEPARTMENT

WE have done such a business in our Great Fifteen Department that we were forced to hunt the market over for suits that we could give the strong recommendation of our Great Fifteens. We struck a great snap. A big Rochester manufacturer, now working on Fall clothes, was ready to sell his entire stock of strictly hand tailored clothes providing we would not use his name. We purchased it complete at a big discount. There are about fourteen hundred suits in the snappiest Young Men's Models—they are suits that should sell at $20, $22, $25—they're the best suits ever sold in New England for fifteen dollars. See our great Corner Window.

STOCKS AND INVESTMENTS

By W. H. ROSS, Financial Editor

Stocks were strong in New York at noon, there having been another buying movement in the last half of the morning. Among the strong issues were American Locomotive, Canadian Pacific, Crucible, General Electric, Erie, Lehigh Valley, Reading, New Haven, Westinghouse, St. Paul and Union Pacific. Reading sold as high as 96¼ in the morning hour. Railroads were the late morning feature.

Rallies of 12 o'clock included Anaconda ¾, Utah Copper ½, Atchison ¾, Baltimore & Ohio ¾, Canadian Pacific 2, Chesapeake & Ohio ½, Erie 1, Lehigh Valley 1⅝, Reading 2⅝, Missouri Pacific ¼, N. Y. Central ¾, New Haven 1¼, Northern Pacific ⅝, Southern Pacific ¾, St. Paul ¼, Southern Railway ¾, Union Pacific 1⅞, American Can ¾, Car & Foundry ⅝, American Loco ¾, Baldwin ½, Colorado Fuel ½, Crucible 1, Distillers ½, General Electric 2⅞, Goodrich ⅝, Mexican Petroleum ¾, Republic Steel 1, Westinghouse ½ and U. S. Steel ⅝.

Among declines were Chino ½, Lackawanna Steel ½, Industrial Alcohol ¾ and Willys-Overland 2.

The Boston market was also strong, gains including American Zinc ½, Atlantic Gulf common ⅝, preferred ⅝, Butte & Superior ¼, Isle Royale ½, North Butte ⅝, New Haven 1⅛, St. Mary's Land United Fruit 1¼.

Mohawk was off ¼.

The New York market began narrow, but with prices on a higher level. Covering of shorts caused a good advance in Crucible, Distillers, Industrial Alcohol and Mexican Petroleum also started with better than average initial gains. Reading sold within a few minutes above 94 and at a highest record price. Coppers ruled higher, but were in light demand. Railroads did not figure much in the trading. Canadian Pacific, Reading and Erie were most active. Most of the business was in war stocks.

It was a professional market and fairly active. Technically it is stronger because of extension of the short interest. There was not much inquiry on the recent decline. Outside participation is limited. Big interests are doing little except accumulate a few issues when they recede. While the market is more as it was before the war, caution still restrains speculation. This is a time, it is recognized, when about anything is among possibilities. Politics and crop conditions are getting more attention. The labor situation is causing uneasiness.

The tone became still stronger within a few minutes and at the end of an hour prices were firm, with Canadian Pacific, Crucible and Mexican Petroleum showing largest gains. Most advances were fractional. Prices for some issues shaded during the second hour when business decreased in volume as usual.

While the Boston market had a firm tone at the opening, it was narrow and inert. It had no features of interest except an advance of more than three points in Mass. Electric preferred during the first hour. At the end of that period United Fruit was up more than a point. Coppers, since and Adventure were quiet. The list was irregular, with both gains and losses ruling small.

In the metal market copper is quiet, with interest centered upon last quarter demand. Second hands are said to have a large supply of electrolytic but to be finding buyers slow at the high prices they are asked.

In London spot copper and futures were £1 lower, with electrolytic unchanged. Tin quotations were unchanged. Spot lead was 15s 6d and futures 5s to 7s 6d lower. Spelter quotations were unchanged.

The Bay State Automobile Association will hold its annual run and outing June 16, 17 and 18, at Spofford Lake, N. H. Pine Grove Hotel has been engaged exclusively for the club and there will be ample accommodations for all the Bay Staters and their guests, including some members of the Worcester and Springfield Automobile Associations, who will be invited to make the trip.

For several years the annual outings of the Bay State A. A. have been the chief automobile events in this part of the State, and they are becoming more and more popular as the club increases its membership. It is expected that there will be 100 machines on this year's run.

Sales Manager Herb A. Githens, of the Federal Tire and Rubber Company, has been visiting local manager Pigott during the past three or four days. Mr. Githens says that the rubber goods business was never in better shape than it is today. The success attendant upon the efforts of his Boston organization, he adds, reflects that the conditions being experienced by the Federal Company throughout the country.

Fred Merkle, who gained fame years ago as the man who failed to touch second, again made the keystone sack a play a big part in a recent feat at the New York Polo Grounds. Several days ago Merkle hit a two-bagger, which struck the C. T. Silver sign at the Polo Grounds. This sign contains a message that a new car will be given to the player who hits the mark. As a result Merkle was called into C. T. Silver's office the other day and presented with a $1,145 six-cylinder Overland, with a specially designed body, including extra lovely headlights, wire wheels, sun, covers, etc.

BOY SCOUTS GAIN 15,000 IN MONTH

New York, May 18.—The Boy Scout movement, whose motto is "Be Prepared," has grown more rapidly during the recent agitation for preparedness than at any time in its history, according to the report of James E. West, chief scout executive. The scout enrolment has increased by 15,000 in the last three months and is growing at the rate of 15,000 a month.

MAY RECONSIDER RUBLEE FOR BOARD

Washington, May 18.—Senator Hollis of New Hampshire has entered a motion in the Senate for a reconsideration of the vote on George F. Rublee, whose nomination to be a member of the Federal Trade Commission was rejected by the Senate Monday. It was agreed that the motion would be voted on Tuesday or Wednesday.

MICE REFUGEES IN U. S. FROM RAIDERS

New York, May 18.—The Crocker Cancer Research Laboratory at Columbia University has received from London four carefully screened boxes containing four mice valuable for scientific purposes as they are the offspring of mice into which one generation after another, tumor germs have been transplanted for about fifteen years.

During the last Zeppelin raid over London a bomb was dropped near the laboratory where the mice were housed, and fearing that a bomb dropped in a future raid might destroy the work of years, the laboratory officials decided to ship the mice to America.

Jess Willard Says:
"Take Nuxated Iron

A hitherto untold Secret of his Great Victory over Jack Johnson and Frank Moran.

If you want plenty of 'stay there' strength and Endurance and Health and muscles like mine."

Ordinary Nuxated Iron will often increase the strength and endurance of the delicate nervous folks 200 per cent. in two weeks' time.

SPECIAL NOTE—Dr. F. Sauer, a well-known physician who has studied widely in both this country and Europe, has been employed by the makers of Nuxated Iron to make a thorough investigation into the real secret of the great strength, power and endurance of Jess Willard, and the marvelous value of Nuxated Iron as a strength builder.

NEW YORK—Upon being interviewed at his apartment in the Colonial Hotel, Mr. Willard said: "Yes, I have a chemist with me to study the value of different foods and products as to their power to produce great strength and endurance, both of which are so necessary in the prize ring. On his recommendation I have often taken nuxated iron and I have particularly advocated the free use of iron by all those who wish to obtain great physical and mental power. Without it I am sure that I should never have been able to whip Jack Johnson so completely and easily as I did, and while training for my bout with Frank Moran, I regularly took nuxated iron, and I am certain that it was a most important factor in my winning so easily. Continuing Dr. Sauer said, Mr. Willard's case is only one of hundreds which I could cite from my own personal experience where patients constantly use the astonishing power of nuxated iron to restore strength and vitality even in most complicated chronic conditions.

Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old, and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with the blood pressure of a boy of 20 and as full of vigor, vim and vitality as a young man; in fact a young man he really was, notwithstanding his age. The secret he said was taking iron—nuxated iron had filled him with renewed life. At 50 he was in bad health; at 46 careworn and nearly all in. Now at 50 a miracle of vitality and force beaming with the buoyancy of youth. As I have said a hundred time over, iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only throw away their patent medicines and nauseous concoctions and take simple nuxated iron, I am convinced that the lives of thousands of persons might be saved, who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, consumption, kidney, liver and heart trouble, etc. The real and true cause which started their diseases was nothing more nor less than a weakened condition brought on by lack of iron in the blood. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what kind you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. To get this iron into the blood in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate or tincture of iron, as they simply do more harm than good in a few cases. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless.

Many an athlete and prize fighter has won the day simply because he knew how to enrich his blood and strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the affray, while many another has gone to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.—F. Sauer, M. D.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron, recommended above by Dr. Sauer, is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and is widely prescribed by physicians. It is not a constipating iron, does not injure the teeth, make one feel like the older ironsalts preparations, nor upset the stomach, but on the contrary, is quite mild and pleasant to take, and is claimed to quickly make good, red blood, and to relieve many cases of indigestion, as well as for nervous, rundown conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any case of nonsyphilitic organic locomotor ataxia, or general paralysis, or any case of nervous debility, indigestion, lack of energy and nervous exhaustion which it will not benefit within four weeks' time, provided they will take Nuxated Iron according to directions and return the empty package. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in less than four weeks. It is dispensed in this city by all good druggists.

ONLY A FEW HAVE BOTH

"Insight---With the Eyes of Love!"

By NELL BRINKLEY

THE man in the valley, walking down the dusty road of every-day affairs, sees the cloud above the blue, faint hills. Just a cloud—blue-gray—"rain perhaps!" The blue hills—to him they lie, a great wall, far away, with golf at their feet—"if he only had a bit of it!" The desert trees—twisted creatures, hardy and low, not wasting the precious life-sap that is so scant on a great body of branches, dark witches of the waste—to him they stand a bit of shade to climb to when the heat grows white!

But the lover! Scratched with the magic arrow—his eyes grow facets powerful—they see what is not there for other folks. Faith—"with the eyes of love!"

The cloud that floats alone and gray—has the face of Her moulded in it, just as clear and plain, against the blue-bell sky! And the flying shreds of it are her curling hair. Before the eyes of him the face of her changes and smiles! The blue hills—no faint and far and fair—the line of them lying against the horizon, in the little figure o' her, slumbering there where the sky meets the hills.

The profile—the falling hair—the throat—the tender curves! The dwarf tree with the desert and stinging thin through the leaves—it rears against the sky—and there! In the heart of it, like a pearl in a roughened hand, she blooms—lyre self its core, bursting the bark; her hair spraying up into the leaves and mingling golden there, her white arms springing up with the spreading boughs!

Wherever he looks "with the eyes of love," the man on the hilltop, who is always the man in love, sees her face in the sky—while the man in the valley, plodding along on the dusty road, sees only a great, gray cloud.

Anecdotes of the Famous

William Dean Howells tells this Shakespeare story:

"In Stratford," he says, "during one of the Shakespeare jubilees, an American tourist approached an aged villager in a smock and said:

"'Who is this chap Shakespeare, anyway?'

"'He were a writer, sir.'

"'Oh, but there are lots of writers. Why do you make such an infernal fuss over this one?' Whereupon I turn to see Shakespeare hotels, Shakespeare baker, Shakespeare cigars, Shakespeare shoes. What the deuce did he write magazine stories, attacks on the government, or novels?'

"'Oh, no, sir,' said the aged villager, 'I understand he never married.'

TODAY'S BEAUTY HELP

Advice to the Lovelorn

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

IT WOULD BE UNWISE

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX

I am writing to you for some advice and shall appreciate your kindness.

I am a young girl seventeen years old and I am employed as a typist by a large mail order firm.

In October I made the acquaintance of a gentleman fifty years of age, although he looks much younger.

He is a well educated gentleman and has a good business, and he professes a perfect gen-

He [illegible] me to go out with him [illegible] parents' consent.

What I want to know is do you think this gentleman is too old for me to go out with?

E. C.

CAN you possibly imagine yourself happy as the wife of a man who is but a little older than your father? Since your ladies and gentlemen are not [illegible] different, and since you [illegible] you must [illegible] in love and be happy for that, of [illegible]

WAIT

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX

I am a young girl of eighteen with [illegible] I learn to [illegible] pretty well, [illegible] sharming. I also sing quite well, stay at home quite much. But my [illegible] to work. I have [illegible] who ask me to go out with them. I always refuse, but there is one I am falling in love with. I know he has very serious intentions, but I must only be a kid, and I feel there is no [illegible] home; girl like me. So I think I might as well go with him. I will do just as you say. G. H. A.

FEMININE charm is not easily defined. Evidently you are attractive in spite of your own opinion to the contrary. I fancy you have an interesting face, which to a great many people means far more delightful than doll-like beauty. Evidently you may not have appeal to the man you would call the personification of love's [illegible] affairs. Before attempting to do this I must ask, for you will [illegible] to [illegible] chance acquaintances. Wait until some fine prince comes along and proves his right to your acquaintance and interest. It is absurd for an eighteen-year-old girl to be worrying about matrimony if you don't marry for five years you will have a deal [illegible] and common sense to bring to your husband than you can I offer you. Don't worry. Cultivate your mind and self respect for the sake of a good time, and don't agitate yourself over your [illegible] look of charm. You seem to be a bright girl with common sense and a gift of analysis. I'm sure you these are more valuable than a misused education or even doll-like beauty.

A New, Harmless Way to Banish Hairy Growths

(Beauty Topics)

By following this suggestion any woman can, in the privacy of her own home, remove every trace of hair or fuzz from her face: With powdered delatone and water mix enough paste to cover the hot wanted hairs; apply and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off and wash the skin. This method is unfailing, harmless and quick in results, but care should be employed to get the genuine delatone.—Advertisement

SPOILS SYSTEM ATTACKED BY GOV. M'CALL

With a vigorous attack upon the spoils system and political bossism, Governor McCall today served a summary demand upon the State Legislature to at once provide a system by which private citizens without a "political pull" can be appointed to State service.

Shortly after the message was read, the House of Representatives, by a vote of 138 to 78, reconsidered the vote by which it yesterday killed the civil service extension bill.

The bill extends civil service to county, city and town employes, gives the Civil Service Commission authority to investigate the fitness of persons who had been appointed to public office and builds up the merit system.

Speaker Cox left the chair and urged reconsideration from the floor of the House. Governor McCall, in a public statement complimenting the Speaker's action, later expressed the hope that the bill "would not be amended to death."

GIVES EQUAL OPPORTUNITY.

"Civil service," the Governor said in his message, "aims to give all those who desire to enter the service an equal opportunity and takes away from the privileged few the power to pay their political debts with appointments to office.

"The lessening of the power of bossism and favoritism and the approach to a just basis where all men, whether they have powerful political friends or not, shall have an equal opportunity to enter the public service upon merit alone, represents a great forward step in real democratic government."

Political bossism has long proved "corrupting in character," Governor McCall said at another point in his message.

To the county rings, who were charged with the temporary defeat of the bill yesterday, Governor McCall applied this attack:

"If the ascertainment of the fitness of an employe and his selection by some other method than a political pull is a good thing for the State, it must assuredly be a good thing for the county."

PRAISE FOR ROOSEVELT.

Governor McCall complimented Theodore Roosevelt as a valiant and staunch friend of civil service.

When the fight is resumed on the civil service bill the Governor is desirous that it shall go through both branches of the Legislature in essentially its present form. Amendments to be offered will exempt the firemen and policemen from any change over the system as it now applies to them.

Governor McCall's message concluded as follows:

"The movement to emancipate the people from the control of the political boss in appointments to non-political offices has been one of the most notable struggles in our history. When the champions of the reform first enlisted in the contest they were loaded with obloquy and derision. But they courageously kept up the fight until finally the day came when in the government at Washington and in the foremost States of the Union the strongholds of privilege were overturned and one of the best tests of the progressive character of a State was seen in the nature of its laws relating to the civil service.

"Grant, Hayes, Garfield and Cleveland were earnest advocates of the reform. I myself heard William McKinley declare in favor of legislation to the end that the dangers to free institutions which lurk in the power of official patronage may be wisely and effectually disconfounded. And the reform in its darkest days had no more valiant nor stauncher friend than Theodore Roosevelt. Massachusetts was the pioneer among the States of the Union in legislation establishing reform in the civil service. But in this regard she has become a laggard. Other States have far outstripped her.

GATES OPEN TO ALL AT NAVY YARD MASS

No tickets of admission will be necessary to attend the memorial mass to be celebrated under the auspices of the Army and Navy Union, Department of Massachusetts, at the Charlestown Navy Yard Sunday morning. All of the Navy Yard gates will be thrown open at an early hour and after the marching bodies have taken their places the general public will be given the best possible advantage, Chairman Edward P. O'Dowd of the Bishop Cheverus General Assembly announces that three companies of that organization will act as escort to Cardinal O'Connell from City Square to the yard in conjunction with St. Mary's Cadets.

WINCHESTER LAYS HOSPITAL STONE

The corner stone of the new Winchester Hospital was laid today by Mrs. Joshua Coit, the first president of the Winchester Visiting Nurse Association, and Mrs. Oren Sanborn, who is chairman of the building committee. Following the laying of the corner stone an address was given by Governor McCall.

The feature of the ceremonies was the announcement of a $50,000 endowment to be given by Mr. George Harrington on the condition that the hospital be freed from debt in two years. Mr. Harrington will contribute $2,000 for the next two years to help pay the debt of the hospital.

MARY T. SHEEHAN OF SOUTH BOSTON DEAD

Miss Mary T. Sheehan, sister of Dr. William J. Sheehan, died at the Carney Hospital this morning of pneumonia after an illness of three days. She was a member of St. Peter and Paul's Church and for many years sang in the choir. She was also a member of the Young Ladies' Sodality and was an active worker in the Ladies' Benevolent Catholic Association.

Don't Curse the Price of Gasoline---CONTROL It

Don't Sigh for Cheaper Gasoline. GET IT by Government Ownership.

Copyright, 1916, by the Star Company.

IF you are a farmer, and keep hens, you get all you can for your eggs.

If the price goes up in cold weather, you accept the increase.

If the city man who does not know much is willing to pay twice the local price, you let him pay it—unless you happen to be a saint.

Coal companies take all they can get for their coal, steel companies take all that they can get for steel, newspapers take all that they can get for advertising, the individual hired for a salary takes all he can get for services, and the Standard Oil and the so-called "Independents," which have their price list made in the Standard Oil office, take all that they can get for their gasoline.

There is no sense or use in moralizing about it.

You think that Mr. Rockefeller is rich enough because he has a thousand million dollars. Your employe thinks you are a great deal too rich because you have one million dollars. You want more money, perhaps. Perhaps Mr. Rockefeller does also.

He uses his money wisely and in a public-spirited way after he gets it, and like you he is within his legal rights in getting more if he gets it legally. Argument is foolish.

At the same time, while the public has no right to blame any man for getting what he can where no criminal conspiracy is involved, the public has a perfect right to combine UNDER GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP and get things cheaper for itself if it is able to do so.

The solution of the gasoline problem, which is a great and national problem, will be found only in Government ownership—true also of railroads, telegraphs and telephones.

There were bitter complaints about extortionate express rates. The great manufacturer who wished to give citizens the benefit of cheap prices could not deal with them—he could not reach them.

The prosperous man who wanted to send a pair of old shoes to his poor relation in the country had to pay more for the express than the shoes were worth.

Talking and groaning did no good. PARCEL POST SETTLED THE MATTER. Parcel post is GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP of the express business.

Parcel post enables the man to send that pair of shoes for nine or ten cents.

Parcel post enables the enterprising merchants to deal directly with every citizen in the United States.

And parcel post very suddenly revealed to the express companies THE FACT THAT THEY COULD CUT THEIR PRICES IN TWO AND STILL MAKE MONEY.

What parcel post did in the express business, Government ownership can do in the gasoline business.

The United States Government owns great oil lands, vast resources that would supply the nation with gasoline for an indefinite period.

These oil lands and that undeveloped gasoline supply BELONG TO THE UNITED STATES.

The oil monopolists—making all they can just as you do—assure the United States that it ought to save its oil for later, while they make all they can.

The United States should immediately develop its oil lands, establish its plants, supply gasoline first of all to the navy and the army, then sell to the people—not on a cut-throat basis—not on a PROFITLESS basis, but in a way to show what the price of gasoline REALLY OUGHT TO BE.

Before the automobile was invented, Standard Oil found that it could sell gasoline very nicely for five or six cents a gallon and even less.

Oil is not exhausted, but suddenly, because THE PEOPLE NEED IT, Standard Oil finds that it must charge for gasoline twenty-six cents, and thirty cents, and later on perhaps forty cents.

Let the Government of the United States manufacture a few hundred million gallons of gasoline, announce itself in the business to stay, and make a specialty of distributing its gasoline where the prices are highest—AND YOU WILL FIND THE STANDARD OIL AND THE LITTLE INDEPENDENTS THAT MARCH BEHIND IT SUDDENLY ABLE TO CUT RATES MOST REMARKABLY.

It is undignified for a hundred millions of people to say to one individual or to one trust, "Won't you please be less unkind and treat us a little more gently?"

Common sense would say, "Be careful how far you go, for we can do this thing for ourselves, and if we do that will be an end of your accumulation of millions. Go ask the express companies, and learn wisdom."

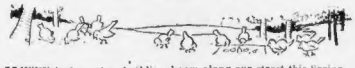
More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

The Season Opens



WE'VE had another building boom along our street this Spring.
On every sightly vacant space construction's in full swing.
The masons and the carpenters are busy every day,
To get new Summer homes in shape before the end of May.
The families have all come back that went away last Fall,
And you can't find a vacant house along the street at all.

THE Robins, who are always keen for places in the sun,
Have picked a plot that's called "The Elm" and have their camp half done.
The Orioles—they like to have a wide and sweeping view—
Have built an airy bungalow, all apic and span and new.
And in a leafless hickory stump—half crumbling and decayed—
You'll find, perhaps, the sheltered home that Mr. Flicker's made.

THE Blue Birds took the same old house they had last year again
And let the upstairs tenement to Mrs. Jenny Wren.
They quarrel sometimes, but, oftener you know by shreds of song,
They get along about the way most neighbors get along.
Some distance from the busy street, half hidden in the brush,
A fine large house is going up—the house of Mr. Thrush.

THERE'S lots of life about the place, before the peep of dawn,
Until the earliest stars are out there's something going on.
With musicales at four a. m. and twilight serenades,
And picnics every afternoon among the grassy glades,
And with a peppery fight or two, for ginger now and then,
The long neglected little street is quite itself again.

No Secret

If Mr. Daniels suppressed Admiral Fiske's report because he feared its publication would bring the Secretary of the Navy into scorn and ridicule, he was fully justified. What was the use of having Fiske do what the Secretary not only could, but had done much better himself.

They've Done Been Delivered

Theodore, Jr., is a trifle late in pledging his sons to fight for the country. The lads, along with their papa, had already been pledged by their grandpapa.

The Only Explanation

The man fined a thousand dollars by a Tacoma judge for speaking disrespectfully of Washington must also have said something pleasant about Seattle.

Congress will git all Summer. It will take at least that long to break the remaining planks of the Baltimore platform.

Our Enemy, the Mosquito

By Woods Hutchinson, M. D.

The World's Best Known Writer on Medical Subjects

ONE would have thought that the Spring poets, chanting from time immemorial, would have dug up and rhymed every possible and imaginable sign of Spring. But while they rang the changes industriously and ad nauseam upon the buds and the spuds and the flowers and the showers and the lambkin and the ducklet and the piglet, they, in the vernacular, "overlooked one best bet."

Their verses are full of the music of the birds from "The time of the singing of birds is come" and Chaucer's quaint "smale foule maken melodie." But they totally forgot to mention another kind of Spring music equally characteristic and even more stirring and inspiring, though to a different kind of "frenzy," and that is the high-pitched pipe of the mosquito as he sings in your ear. With apologies to Tennyson:

"In the Spring the star-eyed daisies
Flock the sward with gold and white;
In the Spring the wanton skeeter
Wakes and flies abroad to bite."

Of all Spring songs the mosquito's has the greatest and most important "message" for us—one which we neglect at our peril.

From a health point of view, we are about coming to the conclusion that the proper study of mankind is insects. Up to a decade or so ago we regarded them merely as trivial annoyances, "trifles light as air" to vex us, very exasperating and trying at times, but to be regarded chiefly as a means of grace for the development of patience and other Christian virtues and unworthy of more than a passing moments thought or attention by serious-minded and grown-up persons. Now we have discovered that they must be counted among the deadliest and most destructive enemies of the human species and dealt with accordingly.

No other single group of agencies, outside of our own species, mow through our ranks such a fearful swath of death and destruction of working power, of suffering and sickness and financial loss as the mosquito with his Original Package of malaria and yellow fever, the Free Delivery fly with his typhoid and Summer dysentery, the flea with his bubonic plague, the lice with their spotted typhus fever and the tsetse fly with his sleeping sickness.

Even the bomb-dropping Zeppelins and aeroplanes are not to be mentioned in the same breath with the mosquito and the fly as destroyers of life and limb. A million lives a year by malaria and yellow fever, and another million by bubonic plague and sleeping sickness, would be a moderate estimate.

Nor should we console ourselves with the illusion that insects are dangerous only in the tropics. The malaria-carrying mosquito ranges clear up to our northern boundary, and many a new settlement in our Middle West and Northwest has been broken up and driven out by malaria, just as the earliest Virginia settlers at Jamestown were.

The mosquito is still our enemy and well deserves a "clean-up week" of his own, while the fly of course, is always and everywhere with us, busily spreading disease germs and other filth by aeroplane parcels post, and whenever we still we may swat him good to our own benefit.

In-Shoots

A good many real nice men will display murderous instincts when it comes to killing time.

The fellow who weds for money generally discovers a lot of spikes in the bed of roses.

When justice strikes, a lot of innocent bystanding tea pots are often knocked over.

Home is where the heart is—and you can also find the landlord there on the first of the month.

One wallpaper dress does not make the Summer girl, but a set of furs will complete the job.

Letters to Prisoners

Ella Wheeler Wilcox Says

Form New, Real Charity

Members of League Organized in Washington by Dr. H. N. Stokes Brighten Lives of Many Behind Bars by Cheerful, Kindly Correspondence

By Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Copyright, 1916, Star Company.

I WONDER if you would care to interest your readers in a plan of Dr. H. N. Stokes, of the O. E. Library, Washington, D. C. He has formed the O. E. Library League, the members of which correspond with prisoners, many of whom have not a friend in the world. What these letters mean to the men and women who fill our prisons mere words cannot express. But this I know, from personal experience in the work, that in every instance I have been able to reach the divine self in those so-called "social outcasts," and I have been able to help them to a philosophy of living of which they were absolutely ignorant. They are not looking for religious letters, but for helpful, cheery ones; letters that make them realize that universal brotherhood is not a joke, and these letters are read and re-read, and for the sake of the human kindness and brotherhood shown in them the recipient tries to live up to the best that is in him.—M. L.

THIS little charity of Dr. Stokes is very touching, and is one more illustration of how many good people are doing kind acts in this world of whom the general public rarely hears. Let a man do evil, and his name, address, his past life and every possible fact connected with him are sent broadcast over the whole world.

Let him pursue a path of quiet, unselfish kindness, devoting time, thought, energy and money to the helping of his fellow-men, and it is difficult to get his name in print. Dr. Stokes' address is Dr. H. N. Stokes, 1207 Q street, N. W., Washington.

Lonely Prisoner Begs for Letter from Somebody on Outside

The lady who writes the above appeal says: "I am enclosing a copy of a letter written by a lonely man who watches vainly each day while his fellow prisoners receive letters from their friends, and the mail carrier invariably passes him by." Here is the letter:

Dr. H. N. Stokes:

Dear Sir—Being I am a prisoner in —— Prison and, like many other inmates of various prisons, I am friendless, having lost my mother, wife and child since my incarceration, I have no one to write to and no one to receive mail from. My friends outside the walls have either forsaken me or they do not desire to write on account of my environment. At times I am wretched, merely for the want of a cheerful word or two.

When I see other men receive mail words cannot express my torture. This is my reason why I write to you, asking you to try to help me.

Will you please send me the name and address of some person who would care to write to a lonesome chap in prison? I assure you I will live up to your rules and regulations and write and answer the mail sent to me. F. M. C.

Dr. Stokes says:

"At this date we have 219 prisoners on our waiting list, who have earnestly asked for correspondents who will cheer and help them. Many of these have not a friend in the world.

219 on Waiting List Anxious for Some Thoughtful, Kindly Word

"Among them are thirteen at U. S. Penitentiary, Atlanta; fifteen at U. S. Penitentiary, Leavenworth; three at the New York Women's Prison; fourteen at Clinton Prison, N. Y.; two at Great Meadow Prison, N. Y.; eighteen at Folsom Prison, Cal.; one at the Maine State Prison; four at Montana State Prison; four at Eastern Penitentiary, Philadelphia; five at San Quentin Prison, Cal.; eighty-six at Sing Sing Prison, N. Y.; one at Texas State Prison; forty-nine at Washington State Penitentiary, and four at other institutions."

There are many people who have time to give to an appeal of this kind and doubtless one letter a month written to one of these lonely prisoners would mean undreamed of happiness and helpfulness.

Send a self-addressed envelope to Dr. Stokes, and ask for the name of some prisoner who will be helped by a thoughtful, kindly word from you now and then.

Liabilities

By C. F. Thwing

President Western Reserve University

"MY bank owed yesterday five hundred and thirty-eight millions," said a bank president to me today. His bank, of course, is one of the largest banks in the whole world. His remark was a fresh way of putting the truth that his bank had on deposit that vast sum of money. For bank presidents are inclined to say more often what are their assets than what are their liabilities. They, like most other human beings, prefer to speak of what they have, rather than of what they owe. Yet, my friend's way was the safer and wiser.

LIABILITIES—The home in which I was born, which was waiting for me when I first came; the love of father and mother; the sacrifices my parents made, the care they gave, the anxiety they suffered, the watchfulness they exerted; the priceless debt I owe which I cannot pay, even if my own fatherhood be the best.

LIABILITIES — The fortune my friend received from his father. He is to hand it over to his children unimpaired. He is to hold it in trust for the good of the community which made it possible for his father to create it, for him to receive and retain it. It is not his. It is really what he owes the community.

LIABILITIES — The education which I received from a school established two centuries ago, from a college three hundred years old, both planted as acorns in a hard soil, nourished by the sacrifices of good and great men, for whose benefits I did not toil and of whose gifts I was simply the beneficiary; a life received, a life in and for and by education, which I am to seek to transmit to those following.

LIABILITIES — The community, my city, my country, my world, for which the generations have toiled, rising from savagery to barbarism, from barbarism to civilization of all latitudes and longitudes, into the best of which I am privileged to enter without tax or toil; to which under God I owe all. What assets have I in the bank of my character to meet the liabilities?

Thus each man should think not only of his assets, but also of his liabilities.

What to Do With Your Child

An impressive and instructive article on children appears in next Sunday's BOSTON AMERICAN. It advocates the teaching of children to meet the daily tragedies of life, an important field overlooked by parents and teachers.
